Supervisors Go Ahead On Plan For Resignations

Resolution Calls For Action By Commissioners In 2 Weeks

Marin County supervisors closed yesterday's meeting by adopting a resolution calling on all members of three county commissions to submit their resignations within two weeks.

The resolution, prepared by County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney after it was requested during the morning session, was adopted 3-to-1, with Supervisor Ernest N. Kittenhofen dissenting and Supervisor Thomas T. Storer having left to attend swearing in of Harold J. Haley as a superior court judge. Storer had voted in the morning to order the resolution prepared.

It calls for resignations of all members of the county planning, personnel and parks-recreation commissions.

In the morning, supervisors had directed Maloney to prepare a resolution calling for resignations of members of commissions where the board has power to do so. Method of removal varies among the commissions, the county counsel reported in response to a query from Kettenhofen regarding the lagality of such action.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker made the morning motion asking the resolution. There was then some talk as to whether one or two weeks should be allowed. Leydecker included "two weeks" in the motion.

A reporter present took this to refer to the time for preparing the resolution. The board minutes showed it referring to the time given the commissioners in which to resign.

Chairman Peter H. Behr said today he did not recall setting any time on the resolution.

Maloney was not present. County Administrator Alan Bruce instructed him to have the resolution ready in the afternoon. Maloney said he was able to do so because he had looked up the law and the method of removal for all the commissions in response to Kettenhofen's query.

Bruce said today he understood the resolution was to be submitted yesterday.

Members of planning, parks and recreation and personnel commissions are appointed for four-year terms. Planning commissioners, however, can be removed by vote of three supervisors; removal of members of the other two requires vote of four supervisors.

Planning commission members are George Scott of Mill Valley and William F. Upton of San Rafael, whose terms will expire April 20; Niels Schultz Jr. of Greenbrae, Felix M. Warburg of Ross and Edward K. Wachsman of San Rafael, whose terms expire in 1966; Henry C. Hankins of Point Reyes Station, whose term expires in 1967, and Eugene Trombley of Novato, whose term expires in 1968.

Parks and recreation commissioners are Gibbs H. Lawson of Supervisors Clash Over Utility Issue

Marin County Supervisors Byron W. Leydecker and Ernest N. Kettenhofen clashed yesterday at the first meeting of the new board over a requirement that a developer put in underground utilities.

The pair exchanged words on the issue of reconsidering a previous board decision to require underground utilities in Marinwood Terrace, a proposed 22-lot subdivision.

"I move that the request be denied," said Leydecker.

Kettenhofen said he was in the audience the day the board made its decision (Dec. 8) and felt the action was "arbitrary and without due notice."

If the board wants underground utilities, it should go through an orderly process, he said. "I feel this man (developer William M. Falcon) is entitled to an appeal."

Leydecker said being in the audience wasn't the same as being aware of all the negotiations between the developer, the people in the area, and the planning staff.

"If we talk about cooperation on a countywide basis, you're not going to get my cooperation if you come into my district and reduce standards over the head of the people I represent," Leydecker said.

"I interpret that as sort of a threat," Kettenhofen replied.

Chairman Peter H. Behr interceded, "I suggest we throw light and less heat. Everyone has a right to expression and one vote and I think Kettenhofen is entitled to his opinion."

The board voted 4-1 to deny reconsideration of the underground utilities requirement, with Kettenhofen dissenting.

The request was made in a letter from attorney Julius H. Selinger, representing Falcon. He said the requirement was not authorized by law, was imposed

NO DESERT, THIS

Highway 99 between Corning and Red Bluff was under several feet of water yesterday and Civil Defense authorities evacuated between 200 and 300 families from the towns of Richfield and Henleyville (Tehama County) after the normally puny Toms Creek rose and smashed levees. Semi-trailer truck rig awash on highway between rows of palm trees shows depth of water, in a scene reminiscent of the Nile River.

Sun Breaks Through, But Clouds Win Again

Blackouts, Flooding Hit County's Homes

Marin's weary storm workers, still trying to clean up after yesterday's ferocious winds, got a brief glimpse of the sun this morning.

But rain returned before much evaporation set in.

Rain, rain and more rain was in sight today. The Weather Bureau predicted rain tonight and tomorrow with colder temperatures.

The howling wind that bowled over trees, tore up composition roofs and knocked down antennas calmed late yesterday afternoon as heavy rainfall began.

Electric crews worked far into the night restoring service and repairing damage. Biggest power failure was on the Tiburon Peninsula where 2,500 customers were without power from 3:45 to 4:25 p.m. after a line parted with a shower of sparks at the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s power station at Alto.

HEAVIEST RAIN

San Rafael had 1.56 inches during the 24-hour period ending at noon today. This brings the season total to 27.42, far above the entire rainfall of 19.82 recorded in San Rafael during the weather year that ended last June 30.

Water flooded homes along Belvedere Lagoon. Storm water popped up a manhole cover on Edgewater Road there, flooding the road and sending muddy water into the Richard C. Allen home at 8 Edgewater and the Eben Rodgers Jr. home at 10 Edgewater.

TIDE TROUBLE

Wind, rain and tide combined for much of the trouble yesterday afternoon.

Point San Pedro Road in San Rafael was closed at the entrances to Peacock Gap during much of the afternoon as the rain and water blown off the bay at high tide turned the street into a canal. One woman drove her car into the flood and abandoned it there.

High wind and high tide combined to lash sea walls in Sausalito and revetments along the Tiburon Peninsula with lashing waves.

Flooded basements were almost the rule of the day as the hard rains came down yesterday afternoon, swelling taxed drains, streams and gutters. Firemen in San Anselmo and Tamalpais Valley had many calls to pump water and check snuffed furnaces.

Granton Park in Kentfield was flooded, with basements filling and water pouring down streets.

In Novato, Warner Creek overflowed as an inch of rain came down between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. yesterday. The overflow forced temporary closure of por-

Flood Risk Decreases For Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Rain swollen rivers in the Far West were "holding their own" today. Officials hoped an expected break in the weather would prevent a repetition of the disastrous Christmas week floods.

Several hundred families along Northern California's Mad and Eel rivers were moved to safety yesterday by the threat of renewed flooding over banks and levees devastated by the Christmas week floods.

STORM EASING

The Weather Bureau reported that the current storm was easing, and forecast colder temperatures with the heavy rains temporarily diminishing to showers.

"The rivers are holding their own," Humboldt County Sheriff's Capt. Edward Hulbert said. "The Eel is still two feet over flood stage, but it's not doing much damage."

Army helicopters Tuesday removed families from Starvation Flats, south of Fortuna on the Eel River, and from the Blue Lake area on the Mad River above Eureka where officials said a huge pile of logs could be torn loose if weakened levees broke.

AIRLIFT CONTINUES

An Army spokesman today said helicopters and propeller-driven transport planes would return to flying relief missions into communities isolated since Christmas.

California Flood Control Director William Miller said the threats of renewed floods were generally diminishing.

But chances of a recurrence of the disastrous Christmas week onslaught which claimed 42 lives and caused damage estimated at $700 million were a matter of "if." It won't happen —if cold weather continues, if the heavy snow pack holds the incessant rain, and if dams hold.

"The water is moving fast," said George Grace, area director of the Office of Emergency Planning in Eureka, (Humboldt County). "If it warms up in the hills behind the valley, we are going to have more trouble."

Residents of the Mad River Valley below Ruth Dam were ordered out although officials said the dam appeared safe.

Sen. Dirksen Blocks Talk On Filibuster

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen today blocked immediate consideration of a liberal-backed change in the filibuster rule, automatically delaying the start of the showdown for one day.

Dirksen "regretfully" objected after Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., asked the Senate to take up his proposal which would permit three-fifths rather than two-thirds of the senators to cut off a filibuster.

Unanimous consent was needed to allow consideration of the Anderson proposal.

Liberal efforts to make it easier to curb a talkathon threaten a prolonged Senate debate which could develop into a filibuster.

The Anderson proposal — cosponsored by Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky.—will become the Senate's priority business Thursday.

Dirksen opposes any change in the rule. So does Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., who said the proposal by the liberals will require considerable discussion which "could last for several months."

DISASTER NOT EASY TO FIND, COUNTY SAYS

MARKLEEVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — Residents of Alpine County slogged through their snow-packed mountains looking for a disaster today, but frankly admitted that they couldn't find one.

Alpine was one of four counties added to the list of "disaster areas" Tuesday by Gov. Edmond G. Brown as the result of nearly three weeks of constant rain, flooding and snow in northern California.

"I don't know why he'd want to go and do a thing like that," said county clerk Chris Mann. "We've had a little high water around here, but no bridges are out, or anything like that."

He said earlier reports of road damage were not true.

"Luther Pass is closed and we're shut off from the rest of California," Mann said, "But that's not unusual."

WASHED OVERBOARD

He Spends 18 Hours Alone In Stormy Sea

MIAMI (UPI) — Donald McNeal, a 28-year-old former paratrooper and father of four, today told how he was swept from his small sailboat 20 miles off shore and spent 18 hours in the stormy Atlantic Ocean before being rescued.

Exhausted, nearly delirious, his eyes swollen shut, McNeal was pulled from the water yesterday and given emergency aid. McNeal was unconscious when help arrived but came to as fishermen aboard the charter boat Prowler plucked him from the water.

A 12-foot wave knocked McNeal into the Gulfstream from the cockpit of a 21-foot sloop about 7:30 p.m., Monday as he and Miami dentist Charles T. Spencer fought through rough seas to return to port. Spencer managed to hang on when the wave struck and then could not find his companion.

Spencer put over a life raft for McNeal, then headed for the nearest land for help.

"I didn't have any fears," said McNeal. "I thought possibly I could catch up to the boat, but then my foul weather gear almost pulled me under."

He stripped to a T-shirt and then started swimming. Spencer guessed the location was about 15 miles off Fowey Light or nearly 20 miles from land. He never saw the life raft Spencer put overside.

"I tried to swim into the shipping lanes. I had freighters all around me. I yelled and whistled but they didn't see me," McNeal said.

A Coast Guard cutter reported hearing what might have been yells in the area, but was unable to locate anyone during the night.

"I wasn't tired so I kept on swimming until daybreak. I was watching the Fowey Rock lighthouse," McNeal said.

"Finally I think I just passed out. I dreamed of being rescued. I can remember waking up now and then, looking around and going back to sleep.

"I was always getting a mouthful of water. The waves were very large."

Wild Voyage Down Sewer For Worker

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP) — A workman clearing debris from a drain cover fell into an underground storm sewer Tuesday night and was flushed a mile through the drain into San Francisco Bay.

He emerged virtually unhurt.

Police said the man, William John Selkirk, 54, fell into the rushing torrent of a two-thirds full 6-foot drainage pipe.

Selkirk was found later trying to clamber out of a deep ditch at the mouth of the drain exit to the bay.

Flood Loss Set At $574 Million

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The flood waters seeping through Northern California and the Pacific Northwest caused damage estimated at $574 million, according to the Office of Emergency Planning.

It's Official— Humphrey, LBJ Elected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress made it official today that Lyndon B. Johnson and Hubert H. Humphrey have been properly elected president and vice president of the United States.

The Senate and House met in a joint session to count the votes cast by electors last month in the various states.

There was no surprise. Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., president pro tem of the Senate, announced the tally at the conclusion of the ceremony in the House chamber.

Of the 538 Electoral College votes, Johnson received 486 to Barry Goldwater's 52.

County Joins Strawberry Tidelands Purchase Effort

The Marin County Board of Supervisors voted yesterday to negotiate for purchase of tidelands off Strawberry Point jointly with the City of Tiburon and the Strawberry Recreation District.

A group of anti-bay fill advocates applauded when the board voted unanimously to proceed toward purchase of 15 acres of tidelands in the Salt Works Canal area, adjacent to the Richardson Bay Wildlife Sanctuary.

Supervisors authorized County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to negotiate with Harbor Cove Corp., owner of the property, and suspended the firm's dredging permit for another two weeks. They also authorized Kelvin J. Nelson, parks and recreation director, to apply for federal funds toward the purchase.

Prior to the decision, Tiburon Mayor Gordon W. Strawbridge said that if the county did not participate, the city would find it difficult to help the recreation district.

Strawbridge said he would like to see the county develop planning for the shoreline. Waterways are neglected and bay fill is against the public interest, he said.

CONSERVATIVES STILL POWERFUL

GOP-Dixiecrat Coalition Puts Up Fight Against Johnson Committee Revamping

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Republican-Southern Democratic coalition in the House apparently is back in business at the same old stand. It may not be as successful as in the past, but it still can make its presence felt.

The coalition once ruled the rooost in Congress, possessing enough conservative votes from both parties to stop most liberal legislation. Since 1961, the coalition has been beaten a number of times, but only after the White House went all out to split away some of the borderline Southern Democrats.

The House vote Monday on rules changes designed to smooth the way for Johnson's "Great Society" program made clear that the coalition still has teeth. The liberal-backed rules changes passed 224-201, but it was Republican votes that put them over.

The party breakdown of the vote showed 208 Democrats and 16 Republicans in favor of the new rules. The opposition was made up of 123 Republicans and 78 Democrats.

What this means is that 16 Republicans, mostly easterners., saved the Democratic leadership from the embarrassment of a stunning defeat on its first test of the 89th Congress. The sting would have been particularly sharp because the Democrats, with 295 members, have their biggest House majority since 1937.

Sixty-nine of the Democratic defectors on the rules issue came from the 11 states of the old Confederacy. The Democratic leadership got only 18 votes from Alabama, Arkansas ,Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

In addition, of course, the rules changes were opposed by 17 Republicans from the 11 Southern states, once almost solidly Democratic.

Medicare Prospects Held Brightest Yet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The drive for a medicare bill rolled on today in the new Congress, with indications that it may have picked up enough momentum to knock down the last major obstacle.

House Democrats forced a change yesterday in the political alignment of the Ways & Means Committee which should give them two more committee votes for the health care bill this year.

The committee has killed similar proposals in the past. The new lineup appeared to cinch the possibility of early enactment of health care legislation which has been before Congress in one form or another for 15 years.

The program, backed by President Johnson, would provide hospitalization and nursing home care for the aged. It would be paid for by increasing present Social Security taxes. However, contributions would go to a special health care fund apart from the regular Social Security funds.

The latest development which boosted the morale of medicare backers was announced Tuesday by Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., after a meeting with House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, Mich.

McCormack said that Democrats with a House majority of 295 to 140, decided to change the committee representation from last year's 3-to-2 ratio to reflect the new 2-to-1 division.

This means that the Ways & Means Committee will have 17 Democrats and 8 Republicans instead of the previous 15 and 10. The two new Democratic members are expected to be medicare supporters. And the bill lost last year in committee by only one vote.

Carl Sandberg Marks 87th Birthday

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Carl Sandburg, the white-haired poet and Lincoln biographer, celebrates his 87th birthday today by lifting a heavy oak armchair over his head for exercise.

"He spreads his feet wide apart and lifts a big, heavy oak armchair over his head three times," said Harry Golden, Sandburg's friend and biographer. "That's his exercise and he does it every day."

Golden said birthday telegrams had been sent to Sandburg's mountain home in Flat Rock, N.C., by the president, Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), and "all that Chicago crowd."

President Johnson also had a gift for Sandburg. It was a color photograph, inscribed by Johnson, of the president, Sandburg and Sandburg's brother-in-law, photographer Edward Steichen.

Legion Head Lashes Foreign Policy

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Donald E. Johnson, national commander of the American Legion, has lashed out at American foreign policy and expressed concern at what is going on at home.

In a speech yesterday to the civic lunch club and a news conference which preceded it in the Biltmore Hotel, Johnson said the United States should mend "the breakdown in relationships" with its Allies rather than negotiate directly with Soviet Russia to ease world tensions.

"The American Legion is very much concerned with the breakdown in relationships with our Allies," he said. "We are conscious of the criticism that we've gone over the heads of our Allies. Let's solidify the Atlantic Alliance first. Let's consult with our Allies before we consult with the Soviets."

Reds Elude Vietnam Troops Seeking Revenge For Defeat

BINH GIA, South Viet Nam (AP) — More than 800 South Vietnamese troops moved out of embattled Binh Gia today into a new operation zone nearby, seeking revenge for the Viet Cong success of the past week.

For the second day no important contact developed. An enemy sniper with a shotgun wounded one paratrooper. The sniper was captured immediately.

Eighty helicopters transferred the troops under the watchful eye of Lt. Gen. John L. Throckmorton, deputy U.S. commander in Viet Nam. No enemy fire met the helicopters as they landed the troops.

The Roman Catholic peasants in Binh Gia, 40 miles east of Saigon, were getting jittery about the exodus of government forces from the area immediately around the town. Only about 400 Vietnamese troops with 12 U.S. advisers remained in the town. Rumors circulated that the Viet Cong had up to 2,000 troops in the vicinity.

In Saigon, the government issued a communique denying rumors of impending negotiations with the Communists to end the war. Premier Tran Van Huong said spreading such rumors was punishable under a law outlawing "communism and neutralism."

Communist China hailed the Binh Gia battle as a "brilliant victory" for the Communist forces. It said it showed the Viet Cong no longer are guerrilla fighters but have grown into a "formidable liberation army."

GOP Show Will Feature 'Ev, Jerry'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican leaders of the Senate and House plan to resume their joint policy meetings early next week with an aftershow now starring "Ev and Jerry."

Their first conference is expected to recommend creation of an over-all GOP coordinating committee — representing governors and other leaders — to frame policy through task forces dealing with key issues.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., the "Ev" of the old "Ev and Charlie" news conference production, will team up with House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, Mich., as the party spokesmen. Rep. Charles A. Halleck, Ind., who was deposed by Ford Monday, is off the billing.

Ford has agreed to continue the format of the weekly televised news conference which made "Ev and Charlie" a familiar title.

Some Republicans grumbled that the Dirksen-Halleck lineup smacked too much of a vaudeville team. But they had to admit that it got them weekly exposure, particularly on television, to offset in part the big advantage held by a Democratic President.

Steelworkers Bargain With New Industries

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The United Steelworkers Union (USW), in a precedent-making move, will engage in simultaneous contract talks with three major industries.

Already steeped in negotiations with the basic steel industry, the union plans to open bargaining talks with the aluminum and can manufacturing firms. The union represents about 500,000 workers in the basic steel industry, 55,000 in aluminum and 65,000 in can.

USW President David J. McDonald said Tuesday the union's goals in the aluminum and can industries will be similar to those now being presented to the "big 11" steel producers.

The resumption of company-by-company negotiations Tuesday revolved around the continued presentation of union demands. U.S. Steel, No. 1 producer, reportedly will offer a "case-by-case" rebuttal today.

Meeting with newsmen after the talks, McDonald declined to comment on whether the USW would try to use as a bargaining point a "selective" $6 per ton increase placed into effect Christmas week by the major producers. He said the subject had not—and would not—be presented to the executive board.

The union will open talks with the can industry in New York Jan. 20. USW local presidents from the aluminum industry will meet here Jan. 8 and 9 to schedule a date for negotiations.

Bay Scientists Studying Fossil

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bones an estimated 14 million years old—comprising nearly the complete skeleton of a paleoparadoxia—are being prepared for a study at a geological survey laboratory in Menlo Park, Calif.

A paleoparadoxia was an aquatic animal about nine feet long and weighing about a ton, somewhat similar in appearance to a sea lion, the survey said.

The Interor Department announced the project today, saying the bones were discovered last Oct. 2 in an excavation site at Stanford University. They were made available by the university for study.

tions of Center Road, Diablo Avenue and South Novato Boulevard.

Petaluma Creek overflowed at high tide at 2 p.m. yesterday, inundating roads in Black Point and leaving heaps of drift timber on the pavement when waters receded.

Water stood four to five inches deep in the home of James O. Calkins at 667 Olive Avenue, Novato.

In Woodacre wind knocked a large tree over in the Paul DeMartini yard at Cascade Drive and Madrone Avenue, smashing a car.

In San Rafael a terrific gust lifted a patio table to the roof of the George D. Forsyth home at 452 Nova Albion Way at 2:30 p.m. yesterday. Twenty minutes later another gust blew the table down into some shrubbery.

A wind gust which struck "like a tornado" swept the 500 block of Eldridge Avenue in Novato at 12:15 p.m. yesterday, according to Mrs. Gerald Elenberger at 570 Eldridge. It tore the composition paper from a portion of her roof.

The gust stripped half the paper from the roof of the Jack Whitcomb home at 580 Eldridge. The homes of I. J. Koenig at 590 Eldridge and Robert O. Percy at 1344 Cambridge street, also suffered roof damage.

A glass door was blown in at the H. L. Chapman home at 535 Midway Boulevard and a bedroom window was shattered at the Alfred Smith home at 469 Wilson Avenue in Novato.

Mrs. David Ferris at 2042 Center Road, Novato, today called crews to chop up half of a large oak that landed on top of her home in yesterday's gusts.

In San Rafael a limb fell at 1106 Grand Avenue at 1:30 p.m., striking a car.

Wind blew in a 10-by-10-foot window in the Montgomery-Ward store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center and also blew in the glass in the front door of the California Highway Patrol headquarters in Madera yesterday afternoon.

Kentfield firemen were called at 4:30 p.m. to use tarpaulins to protect belongings of W. H. Tuggle, 836 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, after wind lifted off part of the roof.

About eight trees blew down in Larkspur, including a large fir at King Street and Hawthorne Avenue.

In Corte Madera, a tree blocked the road near 14 Summit Drive and had to be removed by town forces, and Pacific Gas and Electric Co. crews were called to repair a downed hot line near 33 Mohawk Avenue.

A portion of the roof was blown off a home at 17 Janet Way in Tiburon Hill Estates near Alto at 4 p.m.

Two thirds of the roof on the James Healy home at 839 Marin Drive in Tamalpais Woods was knocked aside six inches when two large eucalyptus trees hit the home at 11:11 a.m. yesterday.

A tree fall closed Girrard Avenue between Pine and Turney streets today. Currey and Central avenues and Glen Drives also were closed by fallen trees. Sausalito street crews and commercial tree men were working on the mess today.

A large tree was hanging over the Dr. C. Raisbeck home at 31 Girrard Avenue today.

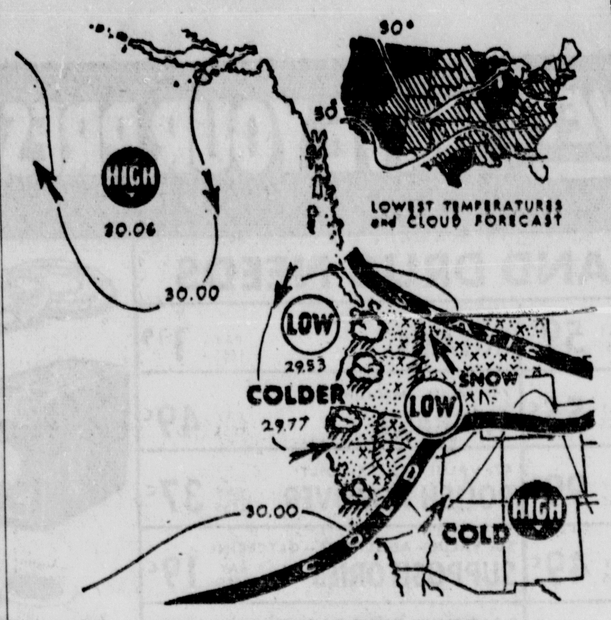

Sausalito's storm trouble was not all on land. Firemen at 10:45 a.m. yesterday recovered a large boat that had broken its moorings in Shelter Cove. Several smaller boats also had to be recovered there.

The Trade Fair, a store aboard the ferry boat, Berkeley, in Sausalito, was closed early yesterday afternoon because there was too much "rock and roll," according to owner Luther W. Conover.

Mud slides and fallen trees continued to plague road crews and slow motorists throughout Marin today.

A large slide partially blocked Sir Francis Drake Boulevard south of Inverness early last night. It was cleared off by county crews, but rising water and high tide later swamped the boulevard at the south end of Tomales Bay, making driving hazardous.

Larkspur street workers went to Via Navarro in Greenbrae to clear a mud slide above Barranca Road yesterday afternoon.

Dillon Beach, whose term expires Feb. 3; Mrs. Adele J. Alpers of San Rafael and Mrs. Charles P. Davies of Novato, whose terms expire in 1966, and Mrs. William B. Newman of Tiburon and James M. Fletcher of San Rafael, whose terms expire in 1967.

On the personnel commission are L. C. Brooks of San Rafael, whose term ends Jan. 22; Eugene R. Lang of Novato and Mrs. Margaret Lucas of Tiburon, whose terms expire in 1966; David B. Burbank of Fallon, whose term expires in 1967, and Julius H. Selinger of Sleepy Hollow, whose term expires in 1968.

Not included in the call for resignations are the redevelopment agency, housing authority, mental health advisory board, human rights commission and flood control advisory board.

Members of the human rights commission and flood control advisory board serve at the pleasure of the board of supervisors, not being appointed for specific terms, so the whole boards can be replaced at any time.

The redevelopment agency and housing authority commissions come under federal law. Members can be removed only for cause, and after public hearing.

No method of removal for members of the mental health advisory board was included in the ordinance setting up the board.

without due cause, and was "unreasonable, arbitrary, discriminatory and oppressive."

Falcon plans the subdivision on an extension of Ellen Drive, west of Las Gallinas Avenue, Marinwood.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said he felt that Selinger "had his day in court."

Behr, who voted against the undeground utility requirement Dec. 8, explained he switched to "aye" because he believes that after a majority has voted a matter should be reconsidered "only under unusual circumstances."

After placing the requirement on Marinwood Terrace Dec. 8, the board directed the planning staff to prepare an ordinance requiring underground utilities in all new subdivisions. It is now under study by the planning commission.

Mayor Yorty Will Run Again

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mayor Samuel W. Yorty announced today he'll be a candidate for re-election in the city primary election April 6.

His decision to seek a new four-year term was made on the urging of many citizens, Yorty told his weekly news conference.

The mayor's statement came shortly after Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif., filed a formal notice of intention to enter the race for mayor.

Firms Interviewed

Representatives of two architectural firms were interviewed in closed session last night by Mill Valley School District trustees. No action was taken and further interviews are scheduled for Tuesday. The board plans to hire an architect in connection with studies it will make for classroom needs.

Novato Trustees Let Job Of Clearing School Site

The old Novato Unified School District board last night awarded a $5,800 contract to Bobo's of Ignacio to clear the site for a new junior high school.

The contract calls for removal of buildings and swimming pool on the Sinaloao Ranch property at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road, which the district purchased.

Trustees called for bids on additions to Novato High School, without the lecture hall, to be opened Jan. 28.

At the Dec. 14 meeting, Richard Banwell, school architect, told the board he made a $68,000 mistake in calculating the money which the district had available for additions to the high school. The board had accepted the bid of C. Royce Hall of Napa, lowest of six bidders, at $668,600, on Dec. 8, but rejected all bids at the Dec. 14 meeting.

The addition will include a science wing, auto mechanics shop, band room, classroom wing, boys' locker and shower wing.

The board hired Janet Hutchison to replace Lucia Orth as sixth grade teacher at Marion School, Fred Loebenstein to replace Catherine Edwards as fourth grade teacher at Rancho School. Both teachers have resigned. They also hired Vickie Bagwell as secretary in the high school and Lois Wisenhunt in the cafeteria.

Patient Is Mum About Eye Loss

Lyle Duane Shurtz, 29, remained in good condition in San Rafael General Hospital today following a New Year's Day beating or accident in which he lost his right eye.

Sheriff's officers from Sonoma County, where the incident occurred, said today that Shurtz, of 1233 Irwin Street, San Rafael, has thus far declined to discuss the matter but their investigation will continue.

Officers said Shurtz told them he believed the injury occurred somewhere on Black Point Cutoff, and that he was taken to the San Rafael hospital by two men in a white pickup truck.

cribed the plan for joint purchase of the tidelands by three public agencies as "unique . . . perhaps a first."

Last month County Administrator Alan Bruce, Public Works Director Donald R. Frost and Planning Director B. D. Dobbs joined in a recommendation strongly opposing spending county funds for acquisition of the Salt Works canal tidelands. They held the tidelands were "essentially of local value" and would be competing for funds with park and recreation developments that have "far greater value."

Stephen H. Kaufmann, attorney for the Strawberry Recreation District, said the tidelands purchase was "not only of local significance."

The staff recommendation ignored the value of preserving open water for health, scenic beauty and wildlife, Kaufmann said.

Behr said, "If we look upon tidelands as of local interest, then it's clear we have thrown up our hands and admitted we're not able to do anything about filling in the bay."

about 11:30 a.m. yesterday, the fishermen aboard yelled several times but got no answer.

"The way they told me later, I guess I was asleep. They didn't know whether it was a coconut in the water or what," said McNeal.

"They noticed, though, that just when a wave was going to hit me in the face, my head would lift up. I remember none of this.

"They came right up to me before I woke up."

He was found several miles off the lighthouse he had been watching, and by the time the boat reached port, McNeal had revived.

"I feel more rested now than I did when we started sailing," he said.

Supervisors Adopt New Budget Schedule

Marin County Supervisors yesterday approved a budget schedule which will bring adoption of the 1965-66 county budget about two months earlier than in previous years.

Under the new schedule the board will adopt a final budget June 29. Traditionally, the final budget has been adopted late in August, reported County Administrator Alan Bruce.

A key features of the new schedule is that budget review with department heads and public hearings will be held at the same time, June 9 to June 23.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said a single set of hearings would give the public a better opportunity to be informed.

"I think we should make a concerted effort to obtain citizen participation in budget hearings," he said.

The final budget adopted in June will only show estimates of assessed valuation and tax rate, since assessments are not completed until after Aug. 1, Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows noted. Adjustments required later should be large, he said. Setting of the tax rate is scheduled "on or before" Aug. 31.

County Approves Widening Part Of San Pedro Road

Marin County supervisors yesterday authorized county department of public works to proceed with plans for widening Point San Pedro Road east of the Embarcadero in San Rafael.

The widening and construction will be a joint project with the City of San Rafael. The city asked that the county handle design of the entire project, as the city line crosses the road at several points.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said it is doubtful if construction could begin prior to July 1. He recommended cost be shared on a 50-50 basis, as agreed several years ago. The board approved.

Supervisors described the overall Point San Pedro road project as a five-year joint project that would extend from the Embarcadero to the "far end" of Peacock Gap.

Church Blast Nets 10 Days

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) —Three men accused of exploding a gas-filled balloon outside a crowded Negro church today were fined $200 each and sentenced to 10 days in county jail.

The charges against James M. White, 31, Donald B. Landers, 19, and Henry Alexander, 35, were reduced to disturbing a religious service. They pleaded guilty.

The men originally were charged with setting off explosives near an occupied building, a capital offense. Prosecution and defense attorneys agreed that the evidence in the case would not support the charge.

Landlubber Is Angry

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Somebody has been taking potshots at the river boats cruising along waters in the Brandon Road Lock of the Sanitary and Ship Canal.

Sam Jones, 43, Vicksburg, Miss., a pilot on the Joseph M. Jones towboat, said a bullet shattered glass in the pilot house.

Jones, who was treated for cuts, said he saw a car turn around and pull away on a road west of the lock after the shooting.

Birth Chances 4 Million To 1

CHICAGO (AP)—The personnel of an insurance company sat up and took notice when an application for hospital insurance crossed a desk.

All three children of the Laven H. Haarberg family, Hamlet, Neb., were born on the same date in each of the last three years.

The children include Angela, born May 8, 1962; Sidney, born May 8, 1963, and Tracy, born May 8, 1964.

The insurance firm, the Benefit Trust Life Insurance Company, said the 4 million to 1 chance of such a coincidence is the first in the 52-year-old company's history.

IT WAS A GOLDEN CHRISTMAS

Christmas held more than the usual significance for Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Summers, former Mill Valleyans now residing in Santa Rosa, as they celebrated it jointly with their golden wedding at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Gaither, at 59 Oxford Drive, San Rafael. The couple married in Berkeley on Christmas Day of 1914 and took a horse and buggy tour of Marin as honeymoon. They moved in 1931 to Mill Valley, where Summers was original owner of Marin Electric and Hardware. Their second daughter, Gloria Embury of 223 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, was also present at the celebration, along with grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Novato Is Going Slow On Underground Lines

The Novato City Council wants underground utilities for Novato, but it wants all the facts available before enacting an ordinance.

After more than an hour of discussion on various systems last night, the council set for Feb. 16 a special meeting to see a half-hour program of slides prepared by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and get more facts on costs.

City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. was asked to prepare a resolution of intention to enact such an ordinance. This would serve notice on the developers and to the planning commission so it would ask for underground utilities in considering tentative maps of subdivisions.

Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, reported on five methods of installing utility lines. He asked for more time to get costs before making his final report.

"The information received to date has varied over a wide range of first costs, from lows of $200 per lot for streamlined systems to in excess of $1,000 a lot for full underground," Coleman reported.

"Developers have not worked out the costs to their own satisfaction yet."

He said that technical advances in the past year have greatly changed the picture.

Coleman outlined the five accepted systems as: Wood poles in streets, wood poles in easements at the rear, streamlined system of metal poles for high voltage with individual services underground, pad-mounted transformers with underground service, and full underground system. These varied in costs from the wood poles in the streets being the cheapest to full underground most expensive.

He pointed out that in San Marin the streamlined system was used voluntarily by the developers. It is being planned also for Scottsdale and Bahia developments, he said.

Carl S. Brown, executive secretary of the Associated Home Builders of San Francisco and Marin, praised the council for taking a realistic approach to the subject in studying costs before taking any action.

The Novato City Council also:

1. Accepted a Thermofax machine and cabinet as a gift from Pacific National Life Assurance Co., employer of Councilman William Jack Adams.

2. Passed an ordinance rezoning from limited agricultural to restricted commercial a lot on Diablo Avenue at South Novato Boulevard, requested by Growth Properties.

Uncrumplers

HOUSTON (UPI) — "Steven Crumpler" is not exactly a name you would find repeated often in any directory.

But Mrs. Leone Hurlburt was on her job one day as kindergarten teacher at Park Place Elementary School when a school employee entered with a new student—Steven Crumpler.

"I already have a Steven Crumpler," Mrs. Hurlburt moaned. The class can keep them straight by the middle name. One is Steven Edward Crumpler and the other is Steven Ray Crumpler.

Plan Extension Requested; Novato Upset Over County

The Novato City Council last night asked the state office of planning for a four-month extension on its federally assisted $82,670 master plan, and city officials made it clear that they were not satisfied with the Marin County Planning Department's work on the project.

The city has received the master map and approximately one-third of the text in unconnected segments, said Robert Lagle, city planning director. The plan was due on Dec. 26.

Still to come are the master storm drainage plan, school system plan, aerial mapping and capital improvement plan.

The City of Novato contracted with Marin County to do the master plan after it received the federal grant.

"I do not think it represents an adequate service from the county," Lagle said.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget said that as the Dec. 26 deadline approached, he made requests for part of the plan. Some of the plan was delayed because of the aerial mapping, he said.

"A number of city decisions are awaiting the master plan," Baget commented.

Councilman Douglas M. Merrill asked if the city or the county had made the contract for the aerial mapping. Lagle said the county had let the contract.

"Then they should have cracked the whip," Merrill said.

Mayor Robert D. Carrow wanted to know if the planning commission would have to wait the full four months before it received the plan.

Lagle said that his staff wanted to go over the plan first because "there might be some of it with which we do not agree." He thought the commission might get it sometime in February.

Last Search Planned For Lost Marin Fliers

Air search for the missing plane of a Greenbrae couple who disappeared after takeoff from San Jose Dec. 19 will be discontinued after one more search, Western Air Rescue at Hamilton Air Force Base reported today.

"We are leaving no stone unturned," said M/Sgt. Daniel F. Thom, who said there is one more possible flight pattern the couple may have taken on the way to Las Vegas which has not been checked.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Murphy of 500 Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, lost communication with San Jose Airport just after takeoff.

Civil Air Patrol and Air Rescue planes were grounded by weather again today, but were standing by for a break. This was the 16th day since the search began.

California and Nevada Civil Air Patrol and the 41st Air Rescue Squadron at Hamilton have put in a combined total of 242 flying hours in search of the missing aircraft, said Sergeant Thom.

Driver, County Worker Injured

A Marinwood man and a county employee were each injured slightly last midnight in a collision between a car and a county dump truck on Lucas Valley Road about a quarter mile west of Highway 101.

John R. Baznik, 39, of 939 Idylberry Road, received a cut forehead when his sports car rammed the truck, which was parked with lights flashing, in the westbound lane.

Henry A. Gilmore, 22, of 850 Railroad Avenue, Novato, was also slightly hurt. Baznik's auto grazed his leg as he was standing about 50 feet in front of the truck, working on a small slide.

Neither was hospitalized.

'Hard Pressed'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Remodeling in Ohio's Statehouse left the press room somewhat smaller than it has been. Apparently some newsman is unhappy, because this sign appeared on the door shortly after the revamped press room opened: "Hard-Pressed Room."

Novato Council Closed Session Fills Vacancies

In a closed session following last night's open council meeting, the Novato City Council filled three vacancies on two city commissions.

Fred W. Binnewies of 5 Tyler Street, superintendent of Point Reyes National Seashore, was named to replace Robert C. Alcorn on the planning commission, for a term expiring Dec. 31, 1967.

Dr. John D. Kassenbrock of 3 Thornton Court, a dentist, was appointed to replace Alton Lerch for a four-year term on the parks and recreation commission. Wilkes L. Johnson of 20 Harding Drive, a physical therapist, was named to a four-year term on the same commission to replace Mrs. Mary Lester.

Every year the great gray whale migrates from Arctic feeding grounds to breeding grounds off Mexico's Baja California.

Reed Trustees Meeting To Consider New Member

Trustees of Reed School District will hold a special closed meeting tomorrow to interview candidates for a vacancy on the board.

Trustees will meet at 8 p.m. at Del Mar School. Supt. Edward C. Pino said the interviews are the only matters scheduled and no public meeting will be held. He said another meeting probably will be held before the board reaches a decision.

The board is seeking a person to fill the post left vacant by Leo Souza. He resigned effective Dec. 31. The term expires June 30. Election will be April 20.

Residents who have asked to be considered for the post are: James B. Atkin, 80 Rowley Circle; Joseph H. Bacheller III, 576 Virginia Drive; Richard N. Bale, 679 Hawthorne Drive; John Raisin, 577 Silverado Drive; James Richwagen, 2201 Centro East; Walter T. Winter, 34 Southridge Road, all of Tiburon; Charles Auebach, 82 Lagoon Road, Belvedere and Douglas Russell, 3340 Paradise Drive, in the unincorporated area.

Five Mexican Fifth Graders Visit Novato

West Novato School has been host the past two days to five fifth grade pupils and their teacher from Mexico City.

This is the second year the school has hosted children from schools in Mexico City stopping en route to and from Portland, Ore., as part of the American Friends Service exchange of students.

This year's group were from Bernardo de Balbuena School, one of 21 schools in Mexico City affiliated with schools in other lands. They exchange letters, pictures and tape recordings during the school year.

Once a year, those who can afford the trip visit their exchange school in the other land. The five from Bernardo de Balbuena School spent a month in Lake Oswego, Ore. They were there during recent floods, which they described in their limited English as "mucha water."

The students arrived in Novato Sunday afternoon by plane froin Oregon. They were given a tour of San Francisco Monday and spent yesterday attending West Novato School classes and entertaining the Novato children with Mexican dances. They left this morning by bus for San Diego, where they will stop one day before going on to Mexico City.

In Novato, they were guests at homes, as follows: Bernardet Cruz with the Richard Purdy family, 2226 Vineyard Road; Alberto Lagunas, the Alfred Smith family, 469 Wilson Avenue; Ricardo Camacho, the William Vandergriff family, 242 Alameda de la Loma; Moises Cortes, the Rex Rolle family, 20 Lomba Vista; Consuelo Tristan, the teacher, with Mrs. Virginia Vogensen, 100 Paladini Road.

Low Bridge For Firemen

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Fireman Roger Dolloff was riding as tillerman — rear driver — on a hook and ladder rig here when it approached an overpass.

He noticed a sign listing the overhead clearance of the pass at 10 feet 4 inches.

Just in time, Dolloff remembered that sitting erect in his tillerman's seat put his head almost 11 feet above ground.

Dolloff ducked and kept his head.

'Nevada Rock Roller' Is Not Dance Club

RENO (AP) — The "Nevada Rock Roller" sounds as if it has something to do with modern music.

But it's the name of a weekly newspaper published in Reno during the early 1900s, when mining was the biggest business in Nevada.

Developer Will Seek Exception To Sausalito Bay Fill Freeze

Sausalito Properties, Inc., will seek an exception to the city's bay fill moratoium to construct an apartment unit between Bee and Napa streets.

United Sand and Gravel Co. will seek an amendment to the city zoning ordinance to continue its sand dump near Mono Street.

These two decisions were made before the Sausalito City Council last night after considerable discussion.

John Lord King, representing Sausalito Properties, was told by councilmen that a dike built between Bee and Napa streets by the company last summer was done without a city fill permit and the water impounded by the dike was part of property included in the city's bay fill moratorium adopted last August.

King protested that his company was acting in good faith when it built the dike and was complying with a city request to clean up the area.

Sausalito Properties, with extensive waterfront development plans, has challenged the moratorium and promised to make a court case of it. However, King said last night that the firm would go to the planning commission, seeking an exception under the terms of the moratorium, to allow the apartment house behind the dike.

Two other apartment buildings are planned to the south, on Bee and Locust streets, by the firm. Councilmen saw no objections there.

United Sand and Gravel Co. will ask the planning commission for inclusion of a "conditional" variance in the city's zoning ordinance, according to attorney Howard N. Ellman, representing the firm.

Councilmen denied a variance last night, saying the operation was not allowed in the waterfront industries zone. The council, however, left the door open to Ellman's suggested conditional variance, which would include restrictions and a time limit. This would require approval of both the planning commission and council.

Joseph Wesley Belchrad of 134 Filbert Avenue, protested the delay, charged the operation is unsightly, and declared that the matter had been "stalled off enough."

The Sausalito City Council Also:

1. Declined to act on a City of Albany resolution urging disciplinary action for students in demonstrations at University of California, Berkeley. Sausalito councilmen agreed that the matter was not within the city's province.
2. Agreed to support efforts of the City of Richmond in seeking reduction of toll, now 75 cents, on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge. San Rafael councilmen took similar action Monday.
3. Awarded a contract to Cecotti and Son of Marin, Inc., Corte Madera, lowest bidder at $15,063.89 on resurfacing of Spring Street, Pearl Valley and West Street, shoulder paving on Locust, Litho and Bee streets, and pavement replacement on portions of Bridgeway.
4. Gave a vote of thanks to city street crews who have been hard pressed during the current storm.
5. Adopted a contract with landscape architects Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck of San Francisco for landscaping of Langendorf Park.
6. Adopted a street improvement budget for the period ending June 30 of this year of $28,760 in state gasoline tax funds. Work proposed includes soil tests for widening of Bridgeway, resurfacing of Spring Street from Bridgeway to Woodward Avenue, and extension of Glen Drive from Santa Rosa to Currey avenues.
7. Adopted a resolution in memory of Frank B. Williams, civic leader, who died at his home at 654 Sausalito Boulevard Dec. 29.
8. Adjourned at 1:15 a.m. today, without completing the agenda, until the next regular meeting at 8 p.m. Jan. 19 in city hall.

Explosion Heard 2,000 Miles Away

NEW YORK (UPI)—One of the greatest volcanic eruptions in history took place on the island of Krakatoa, near Java, in 1883, according to the Book of Knowledge.

The explosion was heard in Australia, 2,000 miles away, and the dust particles that filled the air took two years to settle.

Shark Barrier Is Suggested

DURBAN, South Africa (UPI)—Countries faced with a shark menace to their beaches could benefit from a major advance in anti-shark protection claimed by the Anti-Shark Assn. here.

The association has developed an electrical shark barrier system which is to be tested in the shark - infested waters of St. Lucia Bay, 160 miles north of here on the Zululand Coast.

In extensive tank tests, not one of 40 sharks under observation penetrated the barrier. The tests also showed that for a barrier 30 feet long, operating in water 10 feet deep, the power requirements amount to 1.7 kilowatts. This is equivalent to the amount of power used by the average household kettle.

Rodeo Avenue Gets Hesitant Sausalito Nod

The proposed route for Rodeo Avenue as a four-lane road from Highway 101 to the west end of Nevada Street received hesitant and informal endorsement from the Sausalito City Council last night.

There was a strong reservation relative to Bayside School. The route would be adjacent to the school and the Sausalito School District board protested the route as a hazard for school children.

Councilmen asked City Engineer Beverly J. Whitlow to restudy the route, seeing if a buffer could be provided between street and school.

Sausalito Mayor Jan Paul Dyk made a strong pitch for restricting the development to a two-lane road, but other councilmen declared a four-lane right of way should be provided. First construction could be limited to two lanes, they agreed.

Whitlow argued for four lanes, saying Sausalito access, already a problem, can become acute.

Dyk was concerned that Rodeo, as a major road, would draw heavy traffic from the proposed Marincello, a development west of Highway 101 where 25,000 population is predicted.

Lucky No Fire For Truck's Test Run

OWINGSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Chief Hubert Reed decided to take the town's fire truck for a test run.

He's glad it was only practice. The truck wouldn't start. Vandals had siphoned all the gasoline from the tank.

HELP ON MAIL TOO EFFICIENT, OFFICIAL SAYS

Eleanor O'Hara Chapin of the Sausalito City Council wants to see her mail.

She discovered two weeks ago that about 40 letters a week are addressed to the council, but members see only about eight to 10 a month. She declared last night that it can be embarrassing when someone asked if the council "got my letter."

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said he handles the bulk of the mail as administrative matters. These include complaints about a clogged gutter, worn roads and so on, he said.

Councilman Melvin S. Wax agreed with Mrs. Chapin and suggested that Brown give councilmen a list of all correspondence, with the name and address of the sender and the topic.

Brown said he would do this on a weekly basis.

Firemen's Aide House Burns

LOUISVILLE (AP) — "I can't serve you coffee this time, boys," Walter Swyers told a company of Louisville firemen.

Swyers is an officer in the Salvation Army and has been helping people for 30 years, even to serving coffee and donuts whenever there is a big fire.

This fire swept the Swyers' home, and he and his wife had to flee in their night clothes.

Neighbors took up the good deed, however, carrying on for the Swyers and serving coffee to the firemen.

Sausalito Council Accepts Waterfront Park Donations

Sausalito City councilmen last night accepted with much thanks of a gift of $4,100 from Sausalito Foundation to landscape a small park and plant trees and shrubs along a mile and one-half of Bridgeway.

During the discussion, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown told councilmen that A. G. Schoonmaker Co. has offered to contribute $500 toward the project as well as pay for trees to be planted on its property.

The project includes a park with planter boxes and benches on Bridgeway between the Glad Hand and Ondine restaurants and planting of trees on the east side of Bridgeway from Napa to Wateree streets and of shrubs from Napa to Johnson streets.

Kelso Norman, a trustee of the foundation, presented the proposal last night and declared it would be "first class." Cal Landscapes, represented last night by James V. Schultz, will do the work under supervision of the city.

Eskimos' Teeth Crumbling Faster

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP)—Eskimos, apparently, once needed dentists like a hole in the head.

Now they get cavities like everyone else. Dr. C. H. Carley, a senior federal government dental officer, said that the Eskimo once existed on a high-protein, low-carbohydrate diet. His teeth rarely decayed. But now, many Eskimos eat the same refined high-carbohydrate foods as other Canadians—and they're paying for it in cavities.

Dr. Carley is one of six dentists employed by the federal Health and Welfare Department to work in the vast area of northern Alberta, the Yukon and the Mackenzie District of the Northwest Territories.

Too Many Deer Crossing In Area

WOODSTOCK, Ill. (AP)—Several motorists in the area just below the Wisconsin line say deer are plaguing their safety on the highways.

Grace Wegner, 53, and Karl E. Fritz, 27, were uninjured in separate accidents when deer ran across the road and were hit.

Diabetes Toll High In U.S.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Deaths from diabetes in the United States are among the highest in the world, according to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians. Only Ceylon and Belgium rank higher in a study of 17 selected nations.

In the United States, the age adjusted death rate from diabetes was 13.3 per 100,000 of population in 1958-60, compared with 14.0 in Belgium and 15.5 in Ceylon. Israel and Japan had the lowest rate, 3.7 per 100,000.

These death rates are adjusted to allow for differences between countries with respect to the age distribution of their populations.

Lawmakers Cool To Brown Speech

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown has presented some 30 recommendations to the legislature and if the reception of his annual message is a barometer, the chief executive may be in for a stormy session.

Veteran political observers said the governor's speech hit the most solid wall of rejection since Brown took office in 1959.

The reaction might signal the approaching of the chief executive's most unproductive year.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, was cautious in his praise, making certain not to endorse any of the proposals.

Senate President Pro Tem Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, said "no one could take issue with anything the governor said in his message."

But then he quickly added, "I have certain reservations" about the governor's proposal to make chemical tests mandatory for everyone accused of drunken driving, and to let the Highway Patrol use radar in speed control.

Burns also expressed doubt of Brown's proposal to strengthen California firearms laws. The Senate leader explained, "It would seem advisable at times for everybody to carry guns for self protection."

Senate Finance Committee Chairman George Miller Jr., D-Martinez, said the governor's message "creates more uncertainties than it provides guidance."

Miller also reported a possible gap of $140 million between estimated state revenues and expenditures in the coming budget.

Republicans were a bit more critical than the Democrats.

Assembly Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, said of the message:

"This will go down in history as the governor's Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde speech."

Senate Minority Leader John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, was sharply critical of Brown's suggestions on reapportionment.

Two Bills Introduced On Campus Discipline

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The reins of administrative control over student and faculty discipline at the University of California would be placed in the hands of the legislature under the terms of two measures proposed today in the Senate.

Sen. Jack Schrade, R-Del Mar, said he introduced the constitutional amendments because of a "breakdown" in communication between UC's Board of Regents, the faculty and the students.

Schrade introduced a second amendment which would automatically fire or expel faculty members or students who are convicted of a criminal offense committed on the campus during demonstrations or other disturbances.

The San Diego County Republican said the amendments were sparked by recent demonstrations on the UC Berkeley campus, in which the Free Speech Movement attempted to demand correction of alleged violations of student political freedom.

One of the purposes of the amendments is to tighten UC's governmental structure, the legislator said, and to correct a situation caused by the granting to students of "too many privileges."

He said that many students who want to attend UC, who have a genuine interest in academic pursuits, have been denied admission due to crowded conditions.

Serviceable Family Might Have Record

FRESNO (UPI) —Conrad Ruby, a Fresno farmer, wonders if any family can surpass the military service record that he and his six brothers set during World War II.

Conrad, John, Gottlieb, Henry, Peter, William and David were all in the service at the same time, six of them were overseas at once and the seventh went overseas later, and they had a total of 24 years of military service among them—13 of them outside the United States.

PANIC ON THE HIGH SEAS

An overcrowded lifeboat filled with crewmen of a sinking American freighter is pictured as it pulled alongside the German auto carrier, Mathilde Bolten, in high seas off Bermuda Dec. 20. Moments later the lifeboat capsized and German seamen leaped over the side to help save 34 U.S. seamen. Four others lost their lives when the crippled freighter Smith Voyager, went down. The captain of the freighter testified in New York yesterday that the 38 crewmen abandoned ship without receiving an order to leave. He called it panic. The photo, taken by a German crewman, was released yesterday. (AP Wirephoto)

HUB SCHOOLS FACE CROWDING

District Forced To Choose Between Double Sessions Or Renting Rooms

San Anselmo schools will be so crowded next year the district will have to choose between double sessions or leasing four portable classrooms.

This was one of the chief points made as the San Anselmo School District board discussed priority needs for the 1965-66 budget last night.

District Supt. Stephen L. Parodi predicted the district would need to hire five more teachers, including two specialists who could ease the load of seventh and eight grade teachers by taking some subjects, such as art or math, from the general program.

Parodi said parents will be invited, through notices sent home with pupils, to attend the board's meeting Jan. 19, to air their views on whether the district should lease portable classrooms or schedule double sessions.

Leasing of four classrooms, Parodi said, would cost $12,000 yearly.

Parodi said the meeting, in the Isabel Cook School multipurpose room, will be of particular importance to parents of youngsters now in the sixth grade at Wade Thomas School and the fourth grade at Yolansdale School, since they would be most likely to go into double sessions in the fall.

Also touched on in the budget study session was the possibility of levying an additional tax to cover health and welfare benefits for district employees. Parodi said the employees will be asked to voice their feelings on this.

The board also adopted two revisions in district policy, one of which specified that there will be no racial discrimination in hiring or advancement of employees.

Two hours of the four-hour meeting were devoted to an executive session which concluded with the expulsion, for an indefinite period, of an Isabel Cook School pupil.

The next session of the board will be Jan. 19, not Jan. 15, as was stated erroneously in a previous story in the Independent-Journal.

Highway 101 Still Shut, 80 Is Open

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Most of Northern California's major roads were open today but tire chains were required in areas of heavy snow.

Only U.S. 101, 199 and 299, and State Route 36, through the flooded areas of Humboldt and Del Norte counties into Oregon were closed.

Interstate 80 over the Sierra was open, with chains required from a point 14 miles east of Truckee to Baxter. Roads in the Truckee area were open, with chains mandatory.

U.S. 50, over Echo Summit, was open but restricted to light traffic. There were several one-way spots.

HUGH TURNER
New role for tourist group

Election of Hugh Turner of Novato, president of Radio Station KTIM, as 1965 president of the Marin Visitors Bureau was announced today.

Turner was elected by the membership to succeed Don Helbig of Greenbrae.

James L. Bigelow of Tiburon was elected as first vice president; William Wachter of Sausalito, second vice president; Esther M. Dearth of San Rafael, secretary, and Glen W. Sleezer of San Rafael, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Sleezer, Gordon H. Dohemann, John D. LaNoue, Ralph M. Woodworth and Van H. Tanner of San Rafael; William A. Eberhardt, Harry Johnson and Kurt Heath of Mill Valley; Maggi Gnau and William Wachter of Sausalito; A. L. Nieri and William W. Wright of Novato; Paul C. Mills Jr. of Kentfield; B. J. Talbot of Tiburon; Frank Mesta of Corte Madera; Clyde W. King of Stinson Beach, and Grant J. Halsing of Fairfax.

Wallet Is Stolen

Theft of a wallet with $50 to $60 from a locker at the Marinello School of Beauty Culture, 828 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was reported to police by student Dennis Lock yesterday.

In 1963, Elmer G. Johnson of Fairborn, Ohio, patented a design for an airplane to be powered by the sun's heat. It was to have a transparent upper wing surface for solar radiation with a radiation trap beneath it.

Fairfax Clubhouse Deadlock Solved

The deadlock over the future of the Fairfax Women's Club has come to an end.

At a special meeting of the Fairfax City Council Monday, the club agreed to let the city take over maintenance, rentals and other details of operating the city-owned building, provided its members are allowed to use it at specific times for their own activities.

The 40-minute meeting was held 24 hours in advance of the time announced for it at the council's Dec. 14 session. The change was agreed upon privately by councilmen afterward, but no notice of the change was given to the press or public.

Councilmen informally expressed approval of the plan, put forth by attorney E. Warren McGuire on behalf of the women's club. They instructed City Atty. Wallace S. Myers to work with McGuire on precise wording of a modified lease.

The changes probably will be adopted at the council's Feb. 8 meeting.

As proposed by McGuire, the new arrangement would guarantee rent-free use of the building by the women's club on the first and third Tuesday of each month, plus two more days and nights each year for special functions.

In return, the club would relinquish exclusive rights to use of the clubhouse kitchen, something the women had earlier appeared unwilling to give up.

In its present form, the lease fails to specify who should be responsible for upkeep of the building. Until now, the women's club has assumed this responsibility, and has partially defrayed the cost by collecting rental from the few other groups who also used the building.

California's Congressmen Launch Flood Aid Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Californians directed congressional attention today to the flood devastation in Northern California and the Pacific Northwest.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., told the Senate it will undoubtedly be necessary for Congress to enact special measures to assist in restoring roads, bridges and other public facilities, as well as to aid individuals and businesses.

Reps. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif. and Don H. Clausen, R-Calif. addressed a joint appeal to the House Public Works Committee chairman for a subcommittee inspection of the damage in order to speed emergency legislation and initiate early flood control studies designed to prevent repetition of the floods.

Kuchel said he would cooperate with northwestern state senators in sponsoring emergency legislation as soon as it becomes clear what measures are advisable.

Kuchel said flood control and reclamation dams proved their worth in preventing millions of dollars in additional damage in the Christmas season flood.

Soldier Indicted In Murder Case

BLACKSTONE, Va. (AP) — A Nottoway County grand jury yesterday indicted Army Pvt. Hugh Leroy Erwin Jr., 20, of San Anselmo, Calif., on a murder charge.

The circuit court grand jury returned the true bill. No date for a trial was set.

Erwin, stationed at Camp Pickett, is charged with the Nov. 5 knife slaying of Mrs. Lila Ward, 78. She died at her home of multiple wounds inflicted with a five-inch steak knife.

American gulls look so much alike, they are hard to identify.

Seven Sit-Ins Convicted In Oakland

OAKLAND (UPI)—Seven persons arrested during demonstration at the Oakland Tribune were convicted by a Municipal Court jury Tuesday on charges of trespassing and disturbing the peace.

The jury of eight men and four women returned the verdict at the end of a four-day trial. Judge Martin Pulich ordered the defendants to appear Jan. 26 for a probation hearing and sentencing.

The seven men, members of the Ad Hoc Committee to End Racial Discrimination, were accused of refusing to leave the truck loading area of the Tribune Building during a demonstration Nov. 21.

Between 50 and 200 committee members have demonstrated outside the building during recent weekends, charging that the newspaper discriminates in its hiring policies. The Tribune has rejected the charge.

Larkspur Gets U.S. Aid For Master Plan

The City of Larkspur has received a federal grant to cover two-thirds of the cost of a master plan project, City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper announced yesterday.

The city council last April passed a resolution requesting the funds. Piper said the approval had come from Washington just four days after he wrote Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) asking for a speed-up. He said he had not thought of asking for such help earlier.

The council is expected to approve a contract with planning consultant John David Erickson and Associates, San Francisco, at its meeting at 8 p.m. today att he city hall.

The master plan will update the city plan adopted in 1948. Included will be a precise plan for the downtown area.

The city is expected to contribute $2,171 in cash and $1,200 in work by city forces. Total cost of the project will be $10,112.

The council will open bids tonight on widening and installing curbs on two sections of Magnolia Avenue north of the downtown area, and will hear a report on a proposed franchise for a community antenna television service.

What A Day For Surfing!

Rain and high winds didn't stop Richard Melevich of Sausalito from taking to the water with a surfboard offshore of the Trident yesterday. He liked it fine. Looking toward Angel Island, where waves beat still higher, he told Independent-Journal photographer Jim Kean, "Gee, I wish I were out there!"

BIG BELVEDERE BLOW—Winds put on a display of force yesterday along Beach Road in Belvedere when they took the tops of waves and hurled them across the street near the city Hall. Wind velocity was estimated at 40 to 50 miles per hour. (Independent-Journal photo)

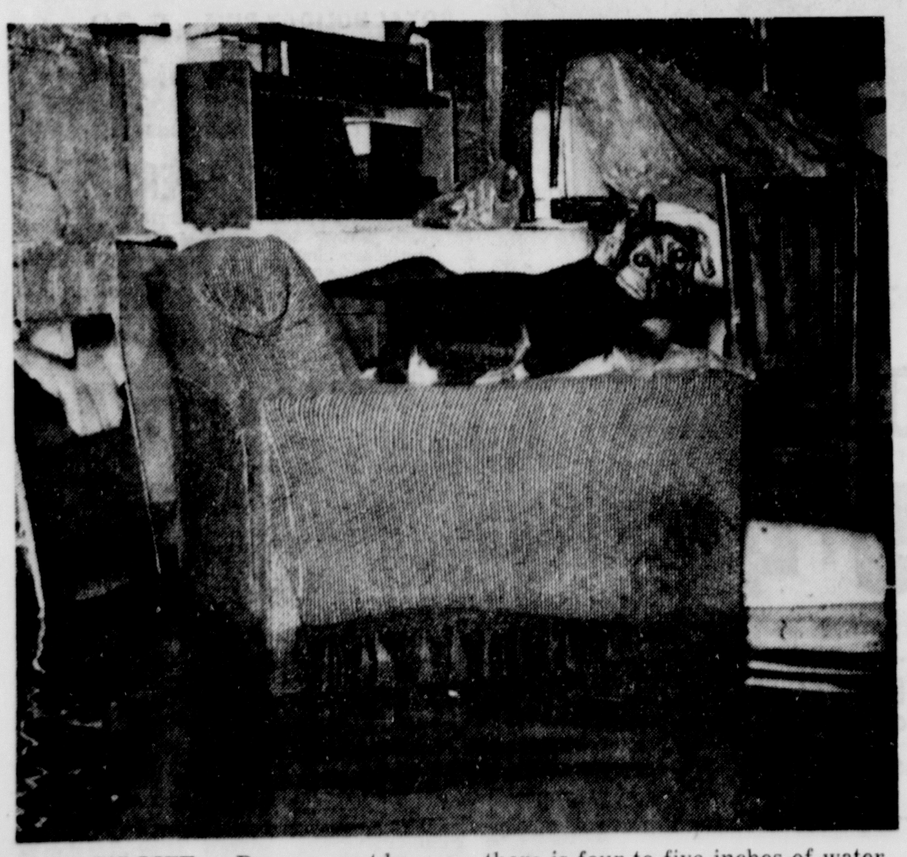

FERRY ONLY LINK—Boxes of bread bound for isolated towns in Northern California are passed by chain of men down a Klamath River bank to small boat used to cross the river. The small ferry crosses the flooded river twice daily at the spot where the huge Highway 101 bridge was swept away by flood waters. The ferry is the only link between Eureka and Arcata in Humboldt County and Crescent City in Del Norte County. (UPI Telephoto)

MOVING OUT AGAIN — A discouraged and weary couple, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cook, go back for one last load from the Robert Stevens home at Ferndale, Humboldt County, as civil defense officials ordered immediate evacuation of the Eel River Valley in the face of new flood threats. The Cooks were trying to help Stevens try to clean this topsy-turvy residence yesterday when the new alarm was sounded. (UPI Telephoto)

THIS IS A ROAD—Rain and water blown in from the bay by high wind combined yesterday to flood Point San Pedro Road at entrances to Peacock Gap in East San Rafael. Police closed the road, but that didn't stop an unidentified woman from driving out of Peacock Gap and into the flood. She escaped from the car and vanished without giving her name. Police let the car remain until the water subsided. (Independent-Journal photo)

A DOG'S LIFE — Pepper, part-beagle hunting dog of James O. Calkins of 667 Olive Avenue, Novato, takes to the high ground as he makes himself comfortable in easy chair while there is four to five inches of water on the floor. The Calkins' home flooded in yesterday's storm. "It happens every year," said Calkins, because of poor drainage of the area. (UPI Photo)

INAUGURATION MEDAL

This is a copy of both sides of the 1965 inaugural medal. It bears President Lyndon B. Johnson's likeness on the front and the presidential seal super-imposed on a map of the United States on the reverse side. Designed by sculptor Felix de Weldon, the first medal srtuck, a gold one, will go to the president. (UPI Telephoto)

Development, Housing Units Retain Officers

Omar E. McNally of San Rafael and Alton Lerch of Novato yesterday were re-elected chairmen of the Marin County Housing Authority and Marin County Redevelopment Agency, respectively.

Lerch was also re-elected vice chairman of the housing authority. Jesse E. Berry of Marin City was elected vice chairman of the redevelopment agency, succeeding McNally in that post.

The two boards, which have identical membership, received the resignation of Nels Johnson of Inverness, because of failing health.

Johnson, who is in his 80's, has served as commissioner on the housing authority since 1942 and on the redevelopment agency since 1956.

McNally and Lerch expressed appreciation to Johnson for his long service, as did Rev. Samuel L. Banks in the audience.

Dolls grabbed a giant share of the $1 billion toy market this Christmas. Dolls these days do everything but change their own diapers. They walk, talk, wink, drink, burp, flirt, sniffle, sneeze, laugh and sing. They wear wigs, blow bubbles and twist.

Marin City School Pact In Trouble

Marin County Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency commissioners yesterday threatened to terminate the $441,900 Marin City land disposition contracts with California Development Co. Inc. in a controversy over building of an elementary school in Marin City.

Following lengthy discussion by both commissions, attorneys for both agencies were advised to investigate possibilities of terminating the contracts, reported Donald O. Stutsman, executive director.

The company has contracted to pay the housing authority $441,900 for 167 acres of ridge land property no later than the close of the redevelopment project. The redevelopment agency has a contract for all residential and commercial lands within the redevelopment project at Marin City.

Stutsman said the New York company had proposed to pay one-half the total price by the end of 1965 if the county, the housing authority and the Sausalito School District would appropriate money toward building the school.

It also proposed to withhold payment until the Federal Housing Administration insured development of about 20,000 square feet of Marin City commercial area.

The commissioners found this completely unacceptable, Stutsman said.

St. Raphael's Official Fractures Shoulder

Rev. Daniel McAlister, administrator of St. Raphael's Catholic parish in San Rafael, slipped Monday night at his residence and broke his right shoulder, the parish reported today.

The fracture was minimal and Father McAlister was conducting business almost as usual today with his right upper arm taped to his side, said Rev. John Petroni. He was treated for the fracture at San Rafael General Hospital.

HERO MEDAL IS DUE FOR SAVING LIVES

A Carnegie Hero Medal will be given to Kenneth D. MacArthur, 30, of 20 Hillcrest Road, Mill Valley, for saving the lives of two when a car plunged off Bridgeway in Sausalito last Feb. 2.

MacArthur, a manager of the Kingston Trio, dived into the ocean after the night crash to pull Thomas M. Ryan, 33, and Collette M. Ryan, 31, to safety.

He then dived back to the submerged car to bring up the body of Edwin B. Gray, 33.

The award announced yesterday includes $500. It was established by philanthropist Andrew Carnegie.

Senior Named School Editor

Editor for the spring semester editions of Red and White, student newspaper at San Rafael High School, will be Rebecca Creasman.

She is a senior journalism student and member of the student council, California Scholastic Federation and journalism honor society Quill and Scroll. She is a daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Paul Creasman, recently transferred to Hamilton Air Force Base.

Prisoners Preparing To Aid Flood Victims

Inmates of San Quentin Prison conservation camps were preparing to help evacuate flood victims from Blue Lake in Lake County and Guerneville in Sonoma County, Associate Warden James W. L. Park said today.

Black Mountain Camp has sent about 30 men to help in Guerneville if it is evacuated. About 70 men from Konockti Camp are standing by in case they are needed to help in evacuation of 200 people from Blue Lake.

Glenwood Homes Group Ballots For Officers

Bruce Hansen was elected president of the Glenwood Homeowners Assn. in San Rafael at a meeting of the board of directors last night.

Other officers elected and installed were Henry Van Galen, vice president; Robert Rice, secretary, and William Manca, treasurer. Directors Lee Brand and Robert Logan, elected with the rest of the board last month by the membership, were also installed last night.

The directors announced that the association's Christmas decoration contests were won by the Milton Cherry family at 23 Hartwood Drive, for best lighting display, and the Winton Harris family at 12 Ashwood Drive, for the best decorated house.

Standard Promotes Marinite

H. J. Haynes, 23 Cielo Drive, Greenbrae, has been named new president of Standard Oil Co. of California, Western Operations, Inc.

Western Operations, Inc. is Standard's principal operating subsidiary and is responsible for the company's exploration, production, transportation and distribution, production, refining and marketing activities in the west, including Alaska and Hawaii.

Haynes succeeds H. G. Vesper, who last week was elected a director and vice president of the parent corporation.

A native of Fort Worth, Tex., Haynes joined Standard in 1947 as an engineer with the California Co., Standard's producing and marketing subsidiary in the Gulf Coast area. After subsequent assignments in Venezuela and on the east coast, he was made assistant vice president of the parent company in 1962 and a vice president and director of its western operations in 1963.

He is a civil engineering graduate of Texas A. and M. University and served two years in the Navy in World War II.

Market Closes Higher

YORK (AP) — The stock market closed substantially higher today.

Prices were at their best levels of the day at the close.

Most changes were fractional but a few gains and losses of a point or more were sprinkled through the list.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.6 million shares, compared with 4.11 million yesterday.

The market was still showing its approval of the bullish aspects of President Johnson's State of the Union message, according to brokers.

Steels, motors, aircrafts, rubbers, utilities, chemicals, rails, oils, airlines and drugs were in the plus column.

However, some big gains were toned down. IBM, which was delayed in opening because of an accumulation of orders, was up more than 7 points at one time but pared the gain to about 2. Du Pont held a gain of nearly 3 points after having been up more than 4.

A jump of nearly 3 points was made by International Harvester after announcement of plans for a stock split and dividend increase.

Advances of a point or so were made by International Nickel, Eastman Kodak, Polaroid and U.S. Smelting.

Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin added about half a point and U.S. Steel was up by a lesser fraction.

General Motors advanced a point and Ford and Chrysler were up about half a point.

Prices were higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed and treasuries advanced.

Whirling dervishes still spin out their mystic dance once a year in the ancient holy city of Konya, Turkey.

Johnson Touches On Pollutant Problem

NEW YORK (UPI) — The men who make the nation's millions of automobiles and the mechanics who keep them in shape may find a clue to some of their future activities in a brief sentence in President Johnson's State of the Union message, taken in conjunction with a separate report to Congress.

The President, in proposals on a national agenda, suggested the nation work to end the poisoning "of the air we breathe." On the same day he delivered his message to Congress, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare reported that air pollution, or smog, is a growing problem "and is attributable largely to the operation of the motor vehicle."

It blamed traffic conditions in major cities for a share of the problem, because engines idling in creeping traffic emit more pollutants. It called for the development of control devices to reduce exhaust hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide. It said additional research was necessary, and vehicle inspection programs "to insure appropriate maintenance of vehicle emission control systems."

Automobile manufacturers already are moving to meet the problem. In 1963, some began installing devices to route unburned gases from exhaust systems back into the engine to be reburned. Other devices are undergoing tests.

California among the states has moved the fastest to meet the traffic smog problem, but there has been dissatisfaction with some installations and with the repair and maintenance work required on some of the systems used on the cars of the state's motorists.

The HEW report said research on the problem was the job of both government and industry.

Valley Bank Has Record Resources

Central Valley National Bank on Dec. 31 showed record total resources of $187,363,147 for an increase of $14,228,932 during the past 12 months, founder-president Charles P. Partridge reported.

Deposits rose to an all time high of $160,790,996, up $9,992,326 from the previous year-end, he said. Operating earnings, after income taxes, for 1964 were $861,948 compared to $863,257 for the previous year.

Earnings were $1.98 per share, based on shares outstanding at the year-end. In 1963, the $2.12 per share reported was based on the average number of shares.

The bank is currently paying dividends at the rate of $1.20 per share per annum. It operates 27 offices in Northern and Central California, one of which is in Novato.

Wells Fargo Earnings Increase 9 Per Cent

SAN FRANCISCO — Record earnings were reached by Wells Fargo Bank with an increase of 9 per cent in per share earnings, it was reported by Ransom M. Cook, chairman of the board.

Earnings after taxes for 1964 amounted to $22,453,654 or $2.53 per share on 8,871,567 shares outstanding. Last year's figures were $20,390,096 in after tax earnings and per share earnings of $2.33.

Hair Stylist For Hurricane Gulch; Gerwick Sends Pilings To Eureka

First business to open in Sausalito's new Hurricane Gulch Shopping Center at Second and Valley Streets is Ronalds —a hair styling and beauty salon.

Owner Ronald de Armond is a Canadian who has been working in a San Francisco salon for the past year. He decided to open his own shop in Hurricane Gulch last April and has been waiting all this time for it to be finished.

On his staff is a San Francisco hair stylist — Diane Pacchetti. Eventually there will be two more. De Armond intends to stay open evenings for the convenience of business women.

RICHARD G. CASTLE of Peacock Gap reports that yesterday his firm, Ben C. Gerwick, Inc., sent a bargeload of materials to Eureka for the disaster area. Aboard were pilings to repair the bridge across the Klamath River, telephone poles, several truck loads of glue for the lumber mills, plus disaster supplies.

The company is headed by J. F. Pomeroy of Ross. Castle is in charge of all its pile driving operations. His assistant, M. B. (Tim) McGowan is a resident of San Rafael.

THOMAS P. PHELAN of Belvedere, president of the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange, reports that during 1964 the exchange exceeded practically every record in its history. Transactions totaling 1.79 billion dollars established an all-time high in trading activity and exceeded that of 1963 by 16 per cent. During the year, share turnover of 56 million shares was 6 per cent above 1963.

A new record was established in the number of new listings for the year, with 35 stocks and three bond issues added, bringing the total number of issues on the exchange to 629. Clearing facilities of the exchange have been expanded.

NETTLE R. MOSSONI of Tiburon, president of the Civil Service Employee's Insurance Co., has announced that his company has been granted certification by the State of California to extend its underwriting activities into the field of life insurance. First move will be to increase this service to policyholders of casualty, fire and howeowners insurance through Civil Service Employees Life Insurance Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary.

The parent company was organized in 1951 and operates in eight western states. Home office is in San Francisco. Publicly-owned shares are held by more than 3,600 stockholders and stock is traded over the counter.

GEORGE WHITNEY of Belvedere, president of Whitneys Playland, and vice president Floyd Gilman of Ross are out to "recast" their Polynesia exhibit for this year's New York World's Fair.

Whitney will leave for American Samoa to pick 40 Samoan students as performers; Gilman is already there searching for new and unique "props" for the New York exhibit.

PEACOCK GAP has been chosen as the site for an architectural project home designed especially for California living. It will be constructed by Marin builder Frank Hanrahan according to a design by architect Robert Martin Engelbrecht, who designed the American home at Seattle's World Fair and the U. S. exhibit at Australia World Trade Fair. When completed this spring, the house will be open to the public.

A HALF CENTURY of service to the redwood timber industry by Northwestern Pacific Railroad was cited by the California Forest Industries Committee with presentation of its "Paul Bunyan of Railroads" certificate. The presentation was made to general manager Charles E. Neal of San Rafael.

Bank Reaches Record Level

SAN FRANCISCO — Crocker-Citizens National Bank's earnings reached a record level for 1964 and its deposits, loans and total assets were at all time highs at the end of the year.

The bank's net operating income after taxes for 1964 amounted to $23,329,923, compared with a 1963 figure of $22,371,496.

These results are equivalent to $2.48 per share for 1964 and $2.38 per share for 1963, with the 1963 figure being based on the assumption that the former Crocker-Anglo National and Citizens National Banks, which merged on Nov. 1, 1963, had been a single bank throughout 1963.

More than 1,700 women are registered representatives of New York Stock Exchange member firms, 45 are general partners and more than 280 are limited partners.

'EYE ON SPACE' BURNED OUT

Firemen futilely battle flames that destroyed a 30-million-dollar, 13-story satellite detection radar station at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., yesterday, before the radically new equipment could ever be put to use. Trucks had to shuttle water eight miles to the scene; firemen could not get enough pressure to halt blaze after it started from an unknown cause. (UPI Telephoto)

Sausalitan, 27, Fights 'Ord Type' Meningitis

A 27-year-old Sausalito man whose fiancee has "some connection" with the Army Language School at Monterey has contracted the same type of meningitis that has plagued Fort Ord near Monterey for months, the Marin County Health Department reported today.

Dr. Patricia Hallinan, assistant county health officer, said she did not know whether the case was one of the same strains of the infection which have been found at Ord, but it was definitely the same type.

Dr. Hallinan would not reveal the man's name, but said he has been in a San Francisco hospital since shortly after the onset of the disease Dec. 16. She said the county health department is not conducting any further investigation of the case.

The exact connection of the man's fiancee with the language school is not known, she said.

Indians speak more than 800 languages and dialects, the National Geographic says. They range from the Hindi of [illegible] to Assamese tongues used by as few as half a dozen people.

No Lack Of Words

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — One candidate for office at a recent high school convention minced no words in reporting a lack of words: "I had a great speech planned. But the room got cleaned up and the maid took it."

Two Typhoid Fever Cases Are Reported

Two cases of typhoid fever, the first in more than a year in Marin County, were reported in Mill Valley last week, according to Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer.

Dr. Albrecht said the two cases, now under control, both involved teen-agers. The victems were not related, but had been together.

Streptococcus infections led the week's list of communicable diseases, with 27 cases, of which nine were in San Rafael.

Mill Valley had eight cases, San Anselmo, four, and Fairfax and Novato, each three.

Next most frequent disease was measles, with nine cases, of which six were in Novato. San Rafael had two; the other was in Mill Valley.

There were five reports of gonorrhea. These included two in San Rafael, plus one each in Sausalito and Fairfax. The fifth was in an unincorporated area.

Also reported were three cases of mumps and two of syphilis.

Ancient Palace Found On Crete

IRAKLION, Crete (AP) — Remains of a seven-room building unearthed near here are believed by Greek archaeologists to be part of the summer palace of the ancient kings of Knossos.

Colorful wall paintings, reliefs of great artistic value and amphorae have been found in good condition.

Woodacre School Site Vote Still Is 2-2

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District were all present at last night's meeting, but the vote on the Woodacre Improvement Club site for a new school still came out 2-2.

Chairman Leslie S. Stone, who was absent from the Dec. 15 meeting abstained last night. Trustees Glen W. Twitchell and William G. McBride again voted against the site.

Trustees heard Stone propose another alternate last night, this one between Central and Railroad avenues near the Marin County Fire Department headquarters.

The board directed Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff to find out what state school officials think of the site and report at the Jan. 19 meeting.

Trustees re-affirmed determination to call a tax election March 9 to retain the $2.65 per $100 assessed valuation general purpose tax. The county election office reported it will be very difficult to ready an election by then because of work needed now as result of supervisorial redistricting.

The board awarded a package insurance policy contract to Insurance Co. of North America, whose bid of $1,503 for annual coverage on fire, liability and other protection was the lowest of six received.

Action Delayed On Invitation

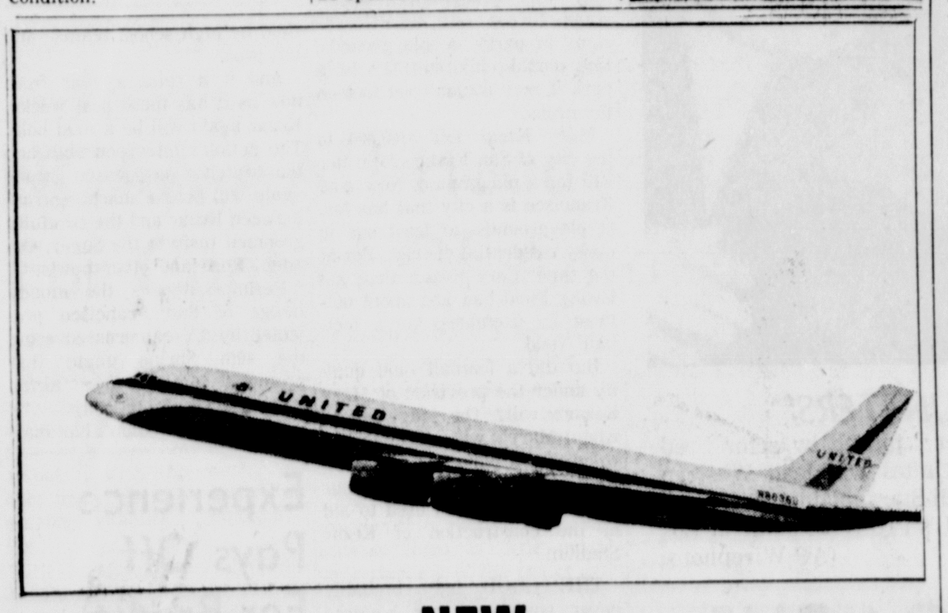

The Corte Madera Sanitary District board last night held up action on an invitation from the Town of Corte Madera to move into the town office building after it has been remodeled.

The district maintenance department was asked to draw up a summary of square footage needs for office space, and find whether the town would have enough space to offer. Herber C. Leney was named to represent the district in design conferences held by the city.

The town plans to remodel the present police and fire quarters as office space after the departments move into a new public safety building. Bids on the public safety building will be opened tomorrow.

TEST TIRE BLOWS AT 170 MPH—DRIVER KILLED

Veteran race driver Bill Wade, 34, of Spartenburg, S.C., earning some between-race money driving this 1964 Mercury test car, was killed yesterday when a front tire blew at 170 miles an hour. The car crashed into a retaining wall at Daytona, Fla. International Speedway. Wade was driving for a series of Goodyear Tire Co. tests.

Marin Tars Top '100' Again— 11th In A Row!

Freshman forward Bill Brody went on a scoring spree last night for the College of Marin cage team and the Tars busted the century figure for the tird time this season, bombing West Valley Junior College 110-91 in Campbell.

Brody, although playing only 28 minutes (70 per cent) of the game, meshed 16 field goals and a free throw for 33 points. The hot-shooting Terra Linda High School grad was hot on jump shots from around the key.

It was the last practice game of the year for Marin. So the Tars will be taking a very impressive 13-2 win-loss record into the start of Golden Valley Conference action. Marin's opener will be Saturday night against Yuba College in Kentfield, 8 o'clock.

Last night's triumph was the 11th straight for the Mariners, who are loaded with talent this season. That 13-2 record is the best mark taken into conference play in the eight years that Cal Riemcke has been at the helm.

All 15 Tars played last night and 13 of them hit the scoring column. By halftime, the Marin boys were in front 52-37. With still four minutes to go in the game, Riemcke pulled out his second unit and threw in the third string boys. The score at that time was 99-70.

Six-foot, seven-inch Fred Arnold tallied 18 points for runner-up scoring honors. Marin guards Brad Busch and Jay Johnson had only 14 points between them, which is rare indeed. Instead, they fed to Brody, as Busch had 11 assists and Johnson 5. It was the first time all season that someone other than Busch or Johnson led the team in scoring.

In reviewing the practice game success of his cagers, Riemcke noted "tremendous improvement through the season, especially from the freshmen."

"That Fred Arnold has really improved," said Riemcke. "He scored 18 points last night and was all over the boards."

Riemcke said he felt the GVC would be a strong conference this season. "Sierra, Shasta, Siskiyou, Santa Rosa, they'll all be tough. The home court advantage will be a key to the conference."

Riemcke did concede the fact that his team will be heavily favored to win the championship. If that does materialize, it would be the seventh championship in eight years for Riemcke.

Scoring for Marin:
Fred Arnold, 6-6-18; Pete Coy, 3-0-6; Larry Wolfe, 3-0-6; Bill Brody, 16-1-33; Rod Monti, 5-2-12; Bill Nelson 1-0-2; Jim Halm, 2-0-4; Bob King, 1-0-2; Jay Johnson, 2-0-4; Lorry Galassi, 1-1-3; Brad Busch, 3-4-10; Barry Hachmyer, 4-0-8; Hap Curley, 1-0-2. Totals: 48-14—110.

N.Y. JETS MAY SPORT $700,000 BACKFIELD

NEW YORK (UPI)—It may be only a matter of time before Notre Dame quarterback John Huarte joins New York's Jet set.

The time may be as close as Saturday when the Jets hold a news conference that may produce the signing of Heisman Trophy winner Huarte as part of a $700,000 rookie backfield.

Huarte's estimated asking price is $200,000, half the figure paid Alabama's Joe Namath after the Cotton Bowl game. An educated guess is that a third newcomer, Princeton's Cosmo Iacavassi, received about $100,000 for joining the American Football League club.

Marin Preps Split Practice Finales

Marin prep cage teams broke even yesterday as the practice game curtain came down for most teams in the Marin Athletic League. Teams will be playing "for real" Friday.

Drake blasted Petaluma 54-30 on the Pirates' court and high-flying Novato dumped Hogan High 52-39 at Vallejo. Terra Linda lost to Castro Valley 52-34 at Terra Linda and Redwood lost to Santa Rosa, there, 54-34.

Drake's victory was featured by a 21-point third quarter, with Chet Carlisle scoring 8 of those points and Rick Henika 6. Henika led the Pirates' scoring for the game with 17 points. Carlisle scored 10 and Will Curley and Bob Tobin each added 7 more. Tobin led in rebounds with 12, as Drake finished the pre-league schedule with a 3-5 mark.

Drake's Class B team lost its game, 35-29, to the Petaluma Bees. Wayne Onizuka tallied 10 points for Drake.

Novato built up a 28-18 halftime lead over Hogan and then scored another 24 points in the second half to win its sixth game in eight starts. Thus, the Hornets will take the best practice game record into Marin Athletic League action.

It was Tom Corder with 17 points and Ev Fritz with 10 to lead the Hornets yesterday at Vallejo. In the Class B game, Hogan whipped Novato 56-29.

Terra Linda completed its pre-league season with a 4-5 mark after yesterday's loss. It was a cold day for the Trojans who hit only 11 of 59 shots from the floor and 12 of 28 from the charity line. Terra Linda missed nine free throws before the first quarter had even ended. Castro Valley hit 18 of 44 shots from the floor.

Don Knotts topped the scoring for the Trojans with 9 points. Led by Kraig Kilby's 11 rebounds, T.L. outrebounded Castro Valley 36 to 30.

Terra Linda's "B" team wound up the practice slate with a 9-2 record after losing yesterday to the Castro Valley junior varsity team, 48-41. Bill Muth was high for the Marin team, scoring 16 points.

Mistakes were Redwood's downfall as the Giants committed a total of 20 ball control errors against Santa Rosa. Redwood was trailing at halftime by 11 points, 25-14. Charlie Davis led the scoring for Redwood with 9 points, and Kevin Wilson added 8 more. Don Detrick led in rebounds with six. Redwood is now 3-8 on the schedule.

In other games, Redwood's Class B team lost to Santa Rosa 39-37, the Redwood junior varsity fell to the Vikings 42-25, and the Giants frosh team downed Cardinal Newman High of Santa Rosa 41-34.

Redwood, the team that draws the opening round bye in Marin Athletic League play, has another practice game on the agenda. Tomorrow the Giants host Washington High School of Fremont at 4 p.m.

Next action for the rest of the teams will be the start of league play Friday night. Novato is at San Rafael, Terra Linda is at Tam, and Drake is at Marin Catholic. Class B games will start the show at all three locations at 7 o'clock, followed by the varsity battles.

FRIARS ROAST ARNIE; GOLF GREAT LOVES IT

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Friars, a showbusiness charitable club, were anything but charitable to golfer Arnold Palmer last night.

The roasted him unmercifully by practically ignoring him as guest of honor

It was a stag affair and 95 per cent of the jokes are unprintable—but Arnie loved it all.

On the dais were such golfers as George Jessel and George Burns. Both have been members of Hilicrest Country Club for years, but neither has ever seen the golf course there—only the gin rummy room.

Almost all of the jokes were about anything or anybody except Palmer.

Pro Bo Wininger told one blushing story that had absolutely nothing to do with Palmer.

Commented master of ceremonies Jessel:

"I have never heard such a touching tribute to Arnold Palmer."

Only Bob Hope and Mickey Rooney, among the showbusiness crowd, acknowledged Palmer as a golfer of distinction.

Rooney told of once playing with Palmer at a pro-amateur tournament.

"I kept topping the ball on every hole, so I asked this great golfer how I could correct this," said Rooney.

"Wear lower heels," advised Palmer.

Palmer was given a standing ovation by the packed house and — despite the needling—called it "the greatest night of my life."

UNITAS MEETS 'THE MUNSTERS'

Baltimore Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, visiting set of television's "The Munsters" show with other Pro Bowl players in Hollywood yesterday, jokes with "Herman Munster," played by actor Fred Gwynne. SOME OBJECTIONS

3-Game Playoff Hit By Players

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A proposal for a best two-out-of-three series to decide the National Football League championship doesn't meet with great enthusiasm from some all-star players here for Sunday's Pro Bowl game.

"It would take at least three weeks to play it," said Jimmy Brown, rushing star for the NFL champion Cleveland Browns. "It takes me a full week to recover from the last game played."

Linebacker Bill Koman of the St. Louis Cardinals agreed that it would be impossible to play more than one game a week and said he is against it.

"It would be a case of oversaturation," Koman said. "Fans love the championship tilt now. But would they be interested in two out of three? I doubt it."

Roosevelt Brown of the New York Giants said he doubts he could make it in a two-out-of-three series. "It's tough enough now to get 'up' for one game," said the huge lineman.

End Pete Retzlaff of the Philadelphia Eagles thought the idea might be all right.

"But I'd like first to hear what Commissioner Pete Rozelle has to say about it," Retzlaff said. "I don't think he'd care much for it, although the players' fund certainly could use the money."

Both the East and West teams worked out yesterday for the Pro Bowl game in the memorial Coliseum. Some of the all-stars from the St. Louis Cardinals and Green Bay Packers, however, were too tired to do much work after traveling 3,000 miles here from Florida where they played in the NFL Playoff Bowl Sunday.

49ers' Davis May Have To Fight For Job In '65

The San Francisco 49ers yesterday signed end Len Frketich of Oregon State, whose punting in the Rose Bowl was about the only thing that went right for the Beavers.

Frketich, a 220-pounder, averaged 40.9 yards per kick during the season and 43.9 in the Rose Bowl. He was the Prospectors' 17th draft choice.

The signing of punter Frketich and place-kicker Jim Norton of Washington means that 49er kicker Tommy Davis may have to fight for his job next season.

Frketich was the 10th rookie signed by the 49ers this winter.

San Jose To Keep Titchenal

SAN JOSE (UPI) — San Jose State has asked Bob Titchenal to remain in his post as head football coach for at least one more season.

"After weighing all the relevant factors," college president Robert D. Clark said yesterday, "I have requested Bob Titchenal to remain as head coach. But I have asked that he and his staff take steps to improve the program at the points where criticism has developed."

Clark said Titchenal and athletic director Robert Bronzan had pledged "their full cooperation." The school president said he would review the matter again next year.

FORMER STAR

Titchenal is a former grid star at San Jose State, who also starred in service football and with the pros. In his eight years as San Jose State coach, the Spartans have won 33, lost 33 and tied one.

Clark said that the chief criticisms had been that some members of the team had been undisciplined in their personal conduct and that the coaching staff had been "less vigorous in recruiting players and less concerned with public relations than are necessary to a good athletic program."

NEW DETROIT COACH?

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit News said today that the Detroit Lions will announce the hiring of Sonny Grandelius as head coach Sunday.

Grandelius was one of five Lion assistant coaches fired by the National Football League team in December, shortly before head coach George Wilson resigned.

Grandelius couldn't be reached for comment immediately.

He was fired as coach at the University of Colorado in 1962 after a fight with the NCAA over illegal recruiting.

Lion sources declined to comment, but had announced that the new coach would be announced Sunday.

Grandelius, a former Michigan State player, coached his teams to a 21-9 record at Colorado. He later coached as an assistant with the NFL Philadelphia Eagles.

Broilers Win Cage Tourney

Broiler Fish House won the championship of the "C" League in the San Rafael Recreation Department Christmas basketball tourney, edging the Hustlers 39-37.

High scorers for the Broiler team were John O'Looney with 10 points, Dave Cinti with 7 and Al Simontacchi with 6. Leading the Hustlers were Dan O'Brien with 13 and Greg O'Brien with 6.

Poor Mary Kezar Would Blush Over Remarks About Stadium

HANLEY

Mary Kezar wouldn't have liked some of those comments about Kezar Stadium following the 40th annual East-West game. She might have agreed with what was said but still she wouldn't have like it.

The field was a deplorable mud hole but it got that way in a manner that Mary Kezar precisely intended—from lots of use and lots of play in rain or sunshine. Mary Kezar was a lady who could never understand "Keep Off the Grass" signs in parks or playgrounds. How could children play in a park if they couldn't set foot on the grass?

Mary Kezar left $100,000 to the city of San Francisco in her will for a playground. Now, San Francisco is a city that has lots of playgrounds—at least one in every residential district. But at the time Mary Kezar died, old Ewing Field had just about outlived its usefulness as a football field.

But did a football field qualify under the provision of Mary Kezar's will? The judge before whom Mary's will was probated ruled that a playground certainly included a football field. Thus Mary's $100,000 was used to aid in the construction of Kezar Stadium.

THE GOOD lady probably never envisioned her hundred grand being used in such a way but she undoubtedly would have approved because of the number of high school football games played in the stadium named for her.

However, Mary Kezar neither would have liked nor approved intemperate remarks after the 40th East-West game, particularly those which went like this: "They should keep the high school kids off that field so it's in shape for pro games and the annual Shrine game."

BY THE time next August rolls around and another football season is starting, the turf that was missing for the 40th East-West game will have reappeared.

By the time next New Year's Day arrives and the 41st East-West game is played, Kezar's turf will have disappeared again because of constant use of the field by high school teams—and the pros.

And if it rains a year from now as it has these past weeks, Kezar again will be a mud hole. The nation's television audience that watches post-season games again will note a sharp contrast between Kezar and the carefully groomed turfs in the Sugar, Orange, Rose and other bowls.

Perhaps it was the muddy image of San Francisco projected by TV cameras covering the 40th Shrine game that prompted some to say: "Kezar is a disgrace to the city."

Mary Kezar wouldn't like that.

Experience Pays Off For Brodie

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (UPI) — A consistent game, and maybe his experience as a former golf pro, combined to give San Francisco quarterback John Brodie a one-stroke lead today entering the final round in the National Football League golf tournament.

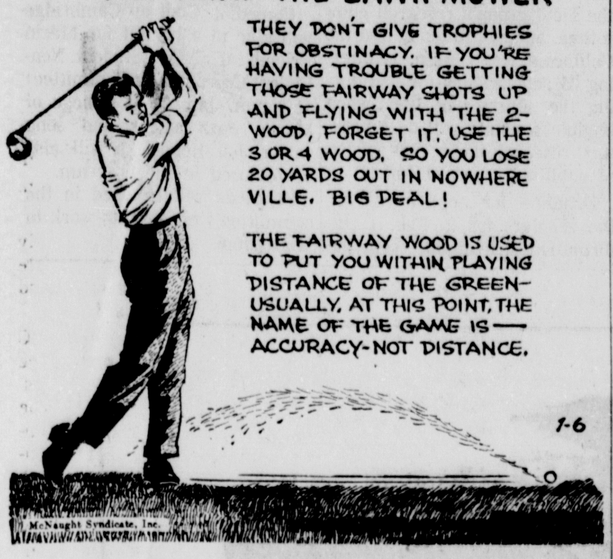

Brodie, who played the pro circuit four years ago, shot a seven-over-par 77 on the Hollywood Beach Hotel course yesterday, giving him a two-round total of 156.

Washington Redskins linebacker John Reger blew his probabilities of winning when he turned in a 94 to ruin his first round 75, which had him in the lead for a short time after the first round.

Jessie Whittington, Green Bay defensive halfback, held down second place, one stroke behind Brodie.

$3 Million Loot On Golf Tour

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — So Joe Namath is going to make $100,000 a year playing quarterback for the New York Jets.

It's a drop in the bucket, kids. Nothin,!

The golfing nomads hit the long, golden trail this week-end on a $3 million tour.

And the chances are that, for the first time in history, at least half a dozen men will collect at least $100,000 in official money for their efforts-plus double to triple that amount in side benefits.

The first stop is the $70,000 Los Angeles Open. First prize here is worth $12,000-and that's not a bad way to start the new year.

"Last year the tour was worth approximately $2,100,000," says Doc Griffin of the PGA. "It will go over the $3,000,000 mark this year because of the added income from television."

"And probably for the first time in history, the golf pros will be playing without any changes in the rules."

This the fans should like-if they can remember from last year. Rules changes in football, basketball, golf or baseball have confused more followers than our Viet Nam Policy.

The tour gets off to a pretty good start with $350,000 in purses during the first five weeks in California. The pros will be able to pick up nearly $100,000 in two stops at Phoenix and Tucson. So it will be nearly a half-million dollar banking operation in the first seven weeks of competition.

NO RECORDS

No official records have been kept, but when Fred Corcoran put the show on the road shortly after World War II, the total purses for a year ran under $200,000.

The Los Angeles Open, which started in 1926, had a $7,500 total purse, with the winner, Lighthorse Harry Cooper collecting first prize money of $3,500.

But the inflation has hit golf in the expense department as well as the income.

In 1950, Sam Snead, never noted for throwing his money away, said it cost him $200 a week to stay on the road-$10,000 o year.

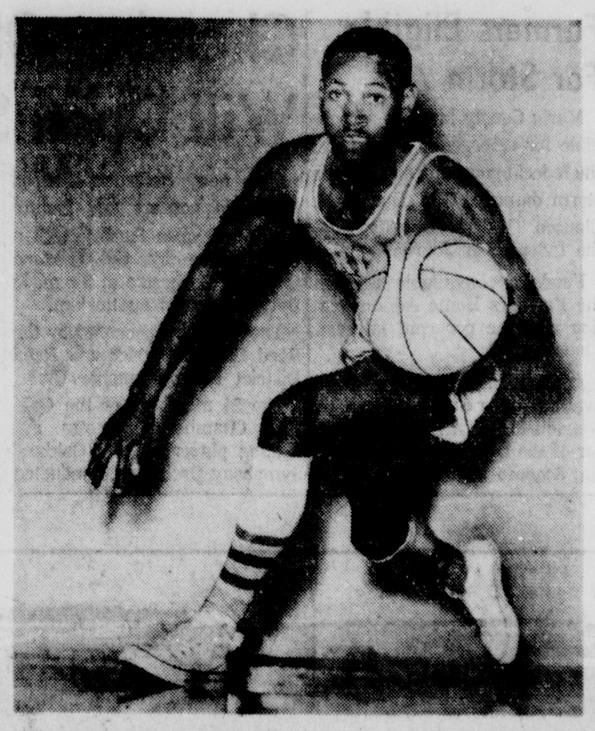

Last year Tommy Jacobs, a solid money winner most campaigns, claimed it was costing him around $22,000 to make the tour.

Jack Nicklaus won the money winning title in 1964 with $113,284.50, about $82 more than Arnold Palmer. Billy Casper collected $90,653.08-and only Palmer and Nicklaus ever won more than that. British Open champion Tony Lema came next with $74,130.35.

In 1965, it may take a $100,000 mark to be in the first 10.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frank Thomas has been the starting left fielder for the New York Mets on the three opening days the Mets have been in existence.

SENSATION—Charley Smith, a youngster from Tennessee, is with the Harlem Clowns for his second season. He's described as a sensation in all departments and will be seen when the Clowns play the College of Marin Block M Club tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Kentfield gym.

Clowns Play In Marin Tomorrow

The Harlem Clowns, a West Coast version of the famed Harlem Globetrotters, will put on an exhibition of basketball comics tomorrow night in the College of Marin gymnasium in Kentfield.

Providing the competition for the Clowns will be the Block "M" Club of the college. Game time will be 8 p.m. Proceeds of the game will help buy travel blazers for College of Marin athletic teams.

The Harlem Clowns team includes 6-8 Arthel "Bones" Smith from Ardmore, Okla.; Stanley "Chico" Burrell, 6-4, from New York, N.Y.; Willis "Lefty" Thomas, 6-2, from Los Angeles; Charley Smith, 6-1, from Memphis, Tenn.; Tommie Bowens, 6-6, from Okalona, Miss., and James "Red" Adams, 5-11, from Riviera Beach, Fla.

The team was originated by Al "Runt" Pullins, one of the great names of comic basketball. Pullins was a member of the original Harlem Globetrotters team back in the late 1920s. He broke with Abe Saperstein, Trotters' boss, in 1934 and went on the road with the Harlem Clowns. The team has toured every state in the union, but concentrates on the West Coast.

Along with his natural clowning, Burrell is a great ball handler and a tremendous rebounder. He has outstanding defensive skills and a fine assortment of scoring shots. But he is no doubt most known for his spectacularly long hook shot which he makes with equal ease from the sideline on either side of the floor.

The Clowns played some 250 games last year and it looks like they'll have 300 or more this season, says publicist "Scoop" Beal.

Price for tomorrow's show is $1.50 for adults, $1 for student body card holders, and 50 cents for children under 12.

San Rafael AAU Swimming Club Opens Practice

Practice sessions for the San Rafael Swim Club, sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department and coached by S. R. High School teacher Larry Lack, started today.

Team members will practice Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 5 to 6 p.m., and novice swimmers will work out from 4:30 to 5 p.m. on the same days. In addition, morning practice sessions for all team members will be held Mondays through Thursdays from 7:15 to 8:15.

All persons wishing to join the AAU swim team may sign up at the San Rafael High School pool on any practice day, according to Joseph Rodota, head of the recreation department.

DRAKE QUINTET HAS DEPTH, WILL TRAVEL

By RALPH CHATOIAN

(Last in a series on prospects of Marin Athletic League basketball teams for the 1964-65 season.)

With a large 17-man squad, plans for Drake High School's cage team include the use of a lot of reserves to do a lot of running.

"We'll be running more and using the fast break," says Pirates' coach Carl "Red" Brown. "We have some good sophomore and junior reserves so we'll be able to do a lot of substituting."

Boasting four returnees from the 1963-64 team, three of whom saw a lot of action, Drake is one of the most experienced teams in the league.

Rick Henika (6-3) and Larry Stein (6-1), both senior forwards, played first string for the Pirates last year, and 6-3 junior center Bob Tobin played quite a bit as a reserve. The other varsity returnee is Bob DeMartini (5-11), a senior guard who didn't see much action for the Pirates last year. That 1963-64 team won only 2 of 12 league games and finished the MAL in sixth place.

Six boys from last year's junior varsity, five from the "B" team, a cager of the frosh squad and a transfer student round out the Pirates' team.

Ex-J.V. players include senior centers Steve Schaefer (6-3) and Andy Morris (6-2), senior guard Stan Carter (5-10), senior forward Paul Bridges (5-11), and junior guards Will Curley (5-9) and Bill Ingram (5-10).

From the Class B team of last year are senior guard Phil Baiocchi (5-8), junior forwards Eric "Duke" Iverson (6-0) and Dick Edelstein (5-10), junior guard Dan Burch (6-0), and sophomore Chet Carlisle, a 6-1 forward. Carlisle is a son of Chester Carlisle, superintendent of the Tamalpais Union High School District, who was super star during his basketball days at University of California.

Karl Stein, younger brother of Larry, is the other sophomore on the Drake team. A six-foot guard, Karl played on the frosh team last season. Bob Dexter (5-11), a senior guard, is the transfer student on the team.

Four positions are pretty well settled for the Pirates, although all are getting stiff battles for their jobs. Henika and Stein have been starting at forwards, Tobin at center, and Curley at one of the guard slots. Carter, DeMartini, Dexter and Ingram all have a good shot at the other guard position.

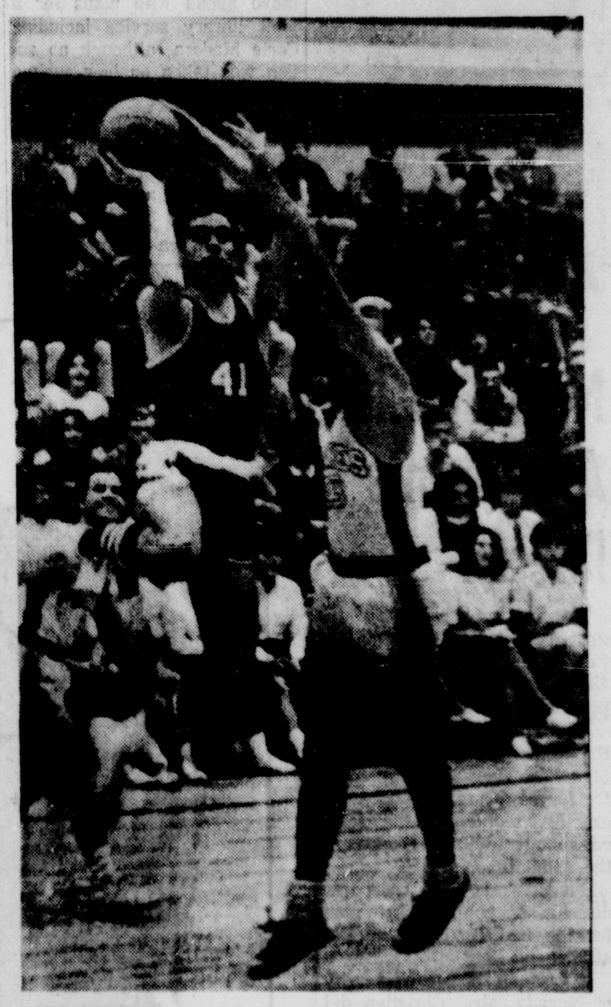

Henika and Curley are the big shooters for Drake, and most of the rebounding has come from the front line of Tobin, Henika and Stein.

Some big "IFs" will have to be overcome if the Pirates are to threaten for the league title. If Tobin picks up more in the scoring department, and if Brown can find the right guard combination, Drake may come out strong.

Carlisle, although only a sophomore, will see a lot of action for Drake, as well as Iverson and Busch.

Brown picks Marin Catholic to win the title, although adding that it should be a really close race. "A 9-3 or a 10-2 record should win the league," said Brown. After Marin, Red picks Novato, Drake and San Rafael, in that order.

The Pirates, 3-5 on the practice season, will open the Marin Athletic League slate Friday at Marin Catholic, 8:15 p.m.

SATURDAY NIGHT

Olympians Head S.F. Track Card

In a year when track promoters are worrying where their next athlete will come from, and established meet sponsors have thrown in the towel due to the AAU-NCAA squabble, this Saturday's Examiner Invitational will be a bonanza show for track and field fans of the Bay Area.

At this date, 24 Tokyo Olympians and representatives from at least a half dozen nations have filed entry for the second annual San Francisco show at the Cow Palace.

Gold, silver and bronze medal winners will be almost commonplace in the second annual San Francisco spikefest. Even where the medals are lacking, the ability is top flight.

Meet director Jim Terrill reports every open event will feature at least one Olympic competitor, some will feature enough stars to form their own galaxie.

The broad jump hosts four 26 foot plus leapers including Ralph Boston, Darel Horn and Gayle Hopkins. Add to this Japan's premiere jumper Hiroomi Yamada.

For openers the quarter mile features gold medal winner Mike Larrabee and Ulis Williams, considered the world's best.

Three high jumpers who have cleared seven feet are listed for that bit of pit action. A quartet of 61 foot plus shot put men will be on hand and the entire pole vault contingent to a man have sailed over the 16 foot bar at one time or another. The vault field was tarnished slightly this week with the announcement that Fred Hansen would not be able to compete in the big show. Hansen took the big prize at Tokyo.

Although his withdrawal was a disappointment, sponsors pulled out all the stops to nail two gold medalists to replace Hansen. They succeeded with Williams and Paul Drayton, rated the top sprinter in the world.

As is the case in indoor meets the long distance events line up as show stoppers. The mile will feature 10,000 meter sensation and gold medalist Bill Mills from Camp Pendleton

California's athlete of the year will face a chore in battling two sub-four minute mile specialists Archie San Remani Jr. from Oregon and Cary Weisiger, a Duke University graduate who has already stopped the clock in 3:56.6.

The two mile hosts the great Spokane, Washington youngster Gerry Lindgren, America's top steeplechaser, George Young and a young Santa Clara phenom Mike Ryan.

Ryan could provide the big upset of the meet. Last year it was Lindgren who brought the crowd to its feet with a tremendous effort in the high school two mile run. From the Examiner meet he went on to international fame scoring a major victory in the U. S.-Russian meet.

Now young Ryan appears to be ready to step into Lindgren's shoes. Track buffs claim Mike is better than Lindgren was at the same age and appears a cinch to break the national prep two mile mark this year.

Tickets for the Saturday night show are on sale at the Cow Palace, Roos Atkins in San Francisco and Stanford, and Breuner's in Oakland, Richmond and Berkeley.

Twenty-three events are scheduled for the evening beginning at 8 p.m.

NCAA-AAU Headed For All-Out Fight For Control Of Amateur Athletes

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union are heading for an all-out fight in the coming indoor track season for control of amateur athletics in this country.

It's highly doubtful the 59th annual NCAA convention Jan. 8-14 in Chicago will do anything to bring the NCAA and AAU closer to agreement. An amendment putting teeth into NCAA policy backing the U.S. Track and Field Federation is likely to be approved. Schools violating the policy would be subject to the same penalties now imposed for recruiting violations.

This would strengthen the chief weapon of the NCAA and the Federation in the fight. That weapon is the boycott. The USTFF is confident that by withholding college and high school track stars it will hurt the indoor meets, which are the chief money-makers for the AAU.

The AAU, however, thinks it already holds the trump card. That card is its control of international sanctioning. The International Amateur Athletic Federation (IAAF) recognizes the AAU as the sole governing body for amateur track in the United States. No American athlete, in or out of college, can compete in the Olympics or other international events without AAU action.

The fight draws a so-what reaction from most of the public because there is little public understanding of the issues and the consequences of the outcome. Government intervention seems likely.

Basic issues have been obscured by charges, but they are simple.

The NCAA and other organizations in the federations contend the AAU has done such a poor job of developing athletes and of administration that U.S. prestige has suffered and the AAU isn't fit any longer to govern amateur sports.

The NCAA and its allies contend they asked for just representation within the AAU over a period of many years and were repeatedly denied any real voice by a hierarchy interested only in keeping itself in power. Rebuffed, they formed the federations in various sports, contending these groups control most of the nation's facilities and athletes.

The AAU says it's wrong to overthrow the only recognized governing body just because you don't like the way it has done the job. The AAU insists it offered the NCAA greater voice, but the NCAA wanted more because it is power-mad and interested only in an organization it can control.

A peace move will be made by the Eastern College Athletic Conference, which includes 131 of the 623 NCAA members. The ECAC proposes a national track and field coalition to solve the bitter dispute.

The NCAA approved a similar coalition in 1962 but the AAU rejected it because it didn't recognize the AAU's big weapon, international sanctioning. The ECAC's proposed coalition would keep this in AAU hands, but assign sanctioning of open events — those open to all amateurs — to the coalition.

The Eastern group likely will propose on the convention floor a resolution that the USTFF and NCAA negotiate on the coalition. The ECAC plan calls for return to the pre-Olympic MacArthur truce during talks but the NCAA is against this in the belief it would allow the AAU to stall until the '68 Olympics.

Government intervention seems likely now rather than peace moves, because each side still believes it can win. The AAU feels it can survive by using more foreign athletes and college graduates, not under NCAA control. It hopes the public will clamor for the college stars and blame the NCAA for their absence.

The NCAA believes the USTFF can run its own program of meets for college standouts and open athletes and do it better than the AAU. It hopes the promoters of indoor meets will defect to the USTFF after taking a financial beating or two — or demand the AAU reach an agreement.

Champ Signs For Non-Title Bout

HOUSTON (AP) — Manuel Gonzalez of Houston will fight Emile Griffith, the world's welterweight champion, in a 10-round non-title bout here Jan. 26, it was announced yesterday.

The fight is being staged by Earl Gilliam, promoter for Texas Boxing Enterpriees.

Griffith has a $10,000 guarantee with an option of 35 per cent of the net gate, he said.

Both fighters are expected to weigh in at about 150 in the over-the-weight match, Gilliam said.

Larkspur Library Board To Seek Two-City Service

The Larkspur Library board yesterday voted unanimously to move ahead with plans for a joint library service including Corte Madera, although no action was taken on how such a service would operate.

The resolution called for work on "effecting a merger of the Larkspur and Corte Madera libraries under a joint powers agreement."

Corte Madera is now part of the Marin County Library District. The Larkspur Library, operated by the city, will have to find new quarters soon because its space in the city hall is needed by the city government.

Tokyo, meaning "Eastern Capital," is an appropriate name for the world's largest city. The metropolis already has 10,500,000 residents, and the population is skyrocketing.

Farmers Eligible For Storm Aid

Marin County farmers are eligible for emergency loans from the federal government to repair storm damage, Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) told the Independent-Journal today.

Funds are available through the Farmers Home Administration at three per cent interest, Clausen said.

Applications for the loans are available through Elmer G. Wendell in Santa Rosa, supervisor of the administration in Marin, Sonoma and Napa counties.

Deadline for applications for the scholarships is Feb. 1. Information is available from the county heart association, [illegible] campus.

Scholarships will consist of $750 to cover living expenses for 10 weeks, Dr. Miller said.

A BRIGHT BRUNCH favorite is this pineapple yeast twist, which can be served with eggs and sausage patties for a special occasion . . .

Serve One Loaf And Freeze Other For Bright Brunches

This pineapple yeast twist has the refreshing flavor of crushed pineapple throughout, from the bottom crust to the pineapple glaze finish. Serve with sausage patties and scrambled eggs for breakfast or brunch.

The special dough is enriched with butter and eggs and requires no kneading. Refrigerate it overnight so it will be ready for shaping and twisting in the morning. Since it takes almost an hour to rise and then another half hour for baking, the bread will be ready in time for brunch.

Roll the dough into foot long ropes and then make a simple twist to shape the loaves. Frost while warm and decorate with a few pecans and bright cherries for color contrast. This recipe makes two pretty loaves—plenty if there's to be a crowd, or one to put away in the freezer for another occasion. The pineapple twist reheats perfectly.

PINEAPPLE TWIST

- 1 (1-pound 4½-ounce) can crushed pineapple
- 3 tbsp. warm water
- 1½ packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 2½ cups sifted flour
- 3 tbsp. sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- ⅓ cup soft butter
- 2 egg yolks
- ¼ cup half-and-half
- Pineapple Glaze
- Pecan halves and candied cherries

Drain pineapple well, pressing out most of liquid; set aside ½ cup for glaze. Measure water into small warm bowl; sprinkle or crumble on yeast; stir until dissolved. Combine with flour, sugar, salt, butter, egg yolks, half-and-half and remaining well drained pineapple. Beat with electric mixer 2 or 3 minutes (or very well by hand) until mixture is blended and becomes moderately stiff dough. Scrape down bowl. Cover and refrigerate 3 or 4 hours or overnight. When ready to bake, divide dough in 4 equal parts; roll each part on lightly floured board to 12-inch rope. Twist 2 ropes lightly together on greased baking sheet; pinch ends and tuck under to seal. Make second loaf with remaining two ropes. Cover with dampened cloth and let rise in warm place until doubled in size, about 50 minutes. Brush with melted butter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. Remove to wire rack. While still warm, spread top of loaves with Pineapple Glaze. Decorate with pecans and cherries. Makes two loaves.

PINEAPPLE GLAZE: Blend reserved ½ cup crushed pineapple with 2 cups sifted powdered sugar. If necessary, beat in a tablespoon of syrup from pineapple to make thick spreading consistency.

Sauce With Leftovers

Daiquiri Mold—An Unusual And Airy-Textured Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press food editor

So here's Daiquiri Mold, made with lime or lemon, eggs and sugar, white rum, whipped cream and unflavored gelatin. We turned the mixture into a large shallow copper-tone mold.

The flavor of this dessert is authoritative, its texture airy.

In the following recipe, we suggest that you cook the custard in a saucepan over direct heat, stirring constantly. But if there is a chance that the telephone or doorbell may interrupt your stirring, better use a double boiler. In the latter case, put the mixture over (not in) boiling water and stir often.

DAIQUIRI MOLD

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 2 cups sugar
- ⅛ tsp salt
- 6 eggs, separated
- ½ cup water
- 1 cup fresh lime or lemon juice
- ⅔ cup white rum
- 2 cups heavy cream, whipped
- Angelica

In a medium saucepan, stir together the gelatin, 1½ cups of the sugar and the salt. Beat together until combined the egg yolks, water, lime juice. Gradually stir into gelatin mixture. Stir constantly over low heat until mixture thickens slightly and gelatin dissolves, 6 to 12 minutes; do not boil. Stir in rum. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon.

In a large bowl beat the egg whites until they hold stiff straight peaks. Gradually beat in remaining ½ cup sugar; continue to beat until very stiff. Fold gelatin mixture into egg whites. Then fold whipped cream into mixture. Turn into a 10-cup shallow mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Sandwiches Use Diced Ham

- 1 cup finely chopped cooked ham
- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- Prepared mustard to taste
- 8 slices bread
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- ¾ cup milk
- Dash of salt
- ¼ cup butter or margarine

Mix together the ham, mayonnaise and mustard; make 4 sandwiches with the mixture and the bread; cut each into 2 triangles. Beat eggs with milk and salt enough to blend; dip sandwiches into mixture. Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter in a large skillet; add sandwiches and brown slowly; turn, adding remaining butter and brown other side. Makes 4 servings.

Look What They're Doing With Basic Old Cornbread

Basic cornbread is laden with quartered cherry tomatoes and green pappers and given a topping of green pepper rings and grated cheese. The cheese melting over the top of the bread makes it look irresistible.

This Harvest Cornbread is good served with scrambled eggs and bacon for lunch or brunch; it's also delicious with cold meat loaf and salad for Sunday night supper.

But whatever menu you put it on, serve it hot! It reheats well.

HARVEST CORNBREAD

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 2 tsp baking powder
- ½ tsp salt
- 1 cup white or yellow cornmeal
- 2 tbsp sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 cup milk
- ⅓ cup butter or margarine, melted
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- 9 cherry tomatoes, stemmed and quartered
- 3 thinly sliced green pepper rings
- ½ cup grated cheddar cheese

Into a medium mixing bowl, sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cornmeal and sugar. Add egg, milk and butter. Beat until just smooth—about 1 minute. Fold in the chopped green pepper and tomatoes to distribute evenly. Turn into a buttered 8 by 8 by 2 inch baking dish. Arrange green pepper rings over the surface of batter. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 15 to 20 minutes. Sprinkle with cheese. Continue baking until cheese melts—about 5 minutes more. Serve piping hot, cut in squares, from the baking dish; or reheat. Makes 9 servings.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER — Hot cornbread treated to tomatoes, green peppers and cheese tastes wonderful with cold meat loaf.

Shrimp Ideas With Curry And Wine

Borrowing a recipe from the cuisine of France, try this glamorous Shrimp Bourguignon to serve when company comes. The French name—which means "in the Burgundy style" — comes from the wine used in the preparation of the sauce. The wine, mushrooms, small white onions and parsley are all ingredients typical of the classic recipe for Beef Bourguignon.

Minutes can be cut off the preparation time by buying peeled and deveined frozen shrimp. But make sure that you use raw shrimp so that they achieve the full flavor from the combined melted butter and bacon drippings in the sauteeing process.

SHRIMP BOURGUIGNON

- 1 cup mushrooms (about 8 small)
- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 4 slices bacon, diced
- 1 pound fresh or frozen shrimp, cleaned but not cooked, or 1 (8oz. or 10 oz.) package peeled and deveined shrimp
- 1 cup canned or cooked small white onions, drained
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups Burgundy wine
- 1 tablespoon butter mixed with 2 tablespoons flour
- Hot buttered rice or noodles

Wash mushrooms and slice stems, leaving caps whole. Set aside. Melt butter in skillet. Add bacon and cook over moderate heat until brown. Remove bacon and add shrimp. Brown lightly and remove. Add onions and mushrooms. Brown, stirring constantly. Add bacon and reheat briefly. Sprinkle with parsley, salt and pepper; then stir in Burgundy. Boil gently over moderate heat fifteen minutes, then stir in butter-flour mixture. Add browned shrimp and simmer five minutes. Serve over hot rice or noodles to four.

THE DELICATE FLAVOR of shrimp is enhanced by the spices and mushrooms. If the occasion is special, you might serve besides rice, several side dishes of condiments with an Eastern flavor — slivered almonds, chutney, coconut and seedless raisins.

SHRIMP A L'INDIENNE

- 1 pound shrimp, fresh or frozen or 1 (8 or 10 oz.) package peeled and deveined shrimp
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- A small bay leaf
- A little thyme
- 1 tablespoon curry powder
- 1 small can chopped mushrooms, drained
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 chicken bouillon cube dissolved in 1½ cups water
- ½ cup light cream

Clean and cook shrimp. Melt butter in saucepan, add onion and cook until soft but not brown. Add bay leaf, thyme, curry powder and mushrooms. Mix well. Stir in flour. Add chicken bouillon and bring to a boil, and cook until thick. Add cream and bring back to boil. Add shrimp and cook only enough for shrimp to heat through. Makes 3 servings.

County Schools Budgeting Proposal Needs Scrutiny

A new law, which would give the county board of education more authority over the county schools office general fund budget, is being studied in Marin for possible application here.

It may be a good law, but we would urge a long, hard look before we accept it lock, stock and barrel.

At present, the school board merely reviews the budget, and the county supervisors approve it. Under the new law, the board of education would have the last word on the county schools office general fund budget.

Of course, both the county school board and the county supervisors must approve before the law would go into effect in Marin.

We don't presume to know the full implications of the new law. The county superintendent of schools has said that this would be another step to make the school board really responsible.

That may be true, and there may be other valid reasons for turning over the general fund budget control to the board of education. Delegation of authority in some cases is good and sometimes necessary.

But before such action is taken, we would be greatly relieved if the supervisors and their financial and legal advisers were to give it a thorough airing so that the public can grasp the full impact of the new move.

For example, if the board of education is given the final word on what its general fund budget is going to be, will the county supervisors ever have anything more to say on what the budget amount is going to be?

The County Board of Education, being an elective body, would no doubt be responsive to the public needs and demands and would keep the budget within reasonable limits, we are sure.

Nevertheless, within the framework of county government, the board of education is one of many "special interest" groups, not in the derogatory sense but in the sense that its primary interest is to work toward better education and better facilities.

It is conceivable that some future school board, in its enthusiasm for education, might go overboard in its budget demands.

Might not the board of supervisors, having jurisdiction over every department and phase of county government, be in a better position to determine the overall needs and serve as a check on the budget requirements or demands of each department and field of interest?

These are some of the questions that keep flitting around in the back of our minds.

We would counsel a careful study of the law and its impact by all involved, before we jump in to endorse it.

Rain—An Irritating Blessing

Rain is irritating, uncomfortable. It is wet. And usually it spoils our plans.

Marinites are an outdoor people and when the winter storms lock us inside, we resent it immensely. In Marin, rain means traffic accidents, floods, broken tree limbs and telephone and power failures. The comfort of a dry day is irreplacable.

But without rain there is no life. Like many other nuisances, it is a blessing in disguise. No sane Marinite would trade a San Anselmo for a Barstow.

But we sometimes wish Whatever controls the weather wouldn't forget to turn off the faucet.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Brown Lauds Highway Officials For Trying To Save Scenery

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown gave the California Highway Commission some well-deserved compliments during a recent press conference, and at the same time stressed the need for the continuing activities of groups of citizens having outstanding merit to assist in making decisions in government.

Asked if Charles DeTurk's stand against freeways in the redwood country had anything to do with his return to his old job of chief of the Division of Beaches and Parks from a higher position, the governor said DeTurk's attitude on this subject had nothing to do with it "in the slightest degree."

DETURK CONSISTENTLY has battled the highway commission's plans for freeways in certain areas of the state when they would interfere with alleged scenic beauty in the parks.

"We're going to have to find a place of agreement between the park commission and the highway commission," the governor said. "I don't know just exactly how it should be done."

Brown said he was not concerned about the proposed road on the west side of Lake Tahoe.

"I do think the people that are so concerned with the beauty up there don't know what the highway commission is thinking about," he declared, "but they are really thinking of a beautiful road there."

"THE COMMISSION is trying to buy enough land so that, if it has to put a four-lane road up there sometime in 1990, why it won't have to go back and buy the land again.

"But the commission really plans a beautiful road, and it's gotten into trouble because it calls the road a freeway.

"It's really not the freeway, you see, between Sacramento and San Francisco. It's a road with scenic highway specifications and it will follow the contour of the mountains. If these people get together and see what we're trying to do, I think that a great deal of the difficulty in Tahoe can be obviated."

The governor said he recalled the great hue and cry over Bidwell Park Freeway in Chico, but indicated the people who use the road are now in favor of its location.

He said he felt the balance between state and local jurisdictions in freeway locations is satisfactory and commended the highway commission for hearing all sides of the story when a controversy cropped up.

"YOU CAN'T MAKE a decision that will please everybody in this highway rerouting," Brown said. "You make a decision and you make one side or the other angry. You just can't keep them happy.

"I think the highway commission is composed of as fine a group of citizens as we have publishing newspapers in the State of California, whether they come from San Bernardino County, or Santa Monica, or Sunnyvale, or from San Francisco; they're all interested in the same thing."

Brown dismissed as virtually impossible any legislation to strip the highway commission of its powers to locate freeways. He also laughed off a proposal to make the governor the arbiter in disputes over locations.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Baby Sitting's Not Really All Profit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Thank you Independent-Journal for your most amusing cartoon, "There Oughta Be A Law," in Monday's paper.

How I howled. Where do you find people who are willing to pay or tap up a dollar and a quarter an hour for baby sitting?

I set aside some time and took children to my home, amused them all afternoon, gave them their lunch, put them down for a nap, took them up from the nap, dressing and undressing them each time, washed faces and hands before the lunch and after the lunch, even some were still in diapers. Some who were in diapers didn't have any extra, so I furnished comfort for these children. Then there was a glass of milk and a graham cracker. After the nap and more supervision, I charged $1.00 an hour. They never came back. Dig that wealthy Marinites, would you. A disillusioned baby sitter. Who?

Young Backer Says I-J Shows Me-Tooism

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am referring to your editorial of Nov. 23 concerning voters who supported the principles also supported by Sen. Barry Goldwater.

You, of course, have a right to your opinion but how an honest, respectable, intelligent and loyal American can arrive at the opinions expressed by you is far beyond my comprehension. You managed to quite clearly convey the impression that you have joined the "me-too'rs."

I join many other readers in being extremely pleased to find that you do not represent the thinking of the community. This position was greatly enhanced by the article prepared by Graham W. Young and printed in your Nov. 30th edition. I am glad and proud to be in the same small group of 26 million straight thinkers along with Mr. Young!

Campus Freedom Demands Defended

Editor, Independent-Journal:

You have printed a very long letter from a Mr. Paul R. Haerle in which he blames the Free Speech Movement at Cal on a lack of moral conduct directly attributable to Democrats and liberals, and I quote, "Now it is not a bete noir like the HCUA but a cherished academic institution which is the target for the radical left."

Just exactly where has Mr. Haerle been since last July? Or has he had his head buried in the sand like an ostrich? Doesn't he know that this whole movement started at Cal during the Republican Convention because students who were backing Goldwater refused to allow the students who were backing Scranton to recruit other students on the campus?

. . . Mr. Haerle's entire letter sounds like he should have belonged to "The Mothers for a Moral America" whose own morals were such that given the opportunity they would have shocked the nation and the world. . . .

Our university students are having growing pains and probably a great many of them are testing to see how far they can go. . . .

It isn't the casual gripe against authority that confuses American youth. . . . The danger lies in the criticism of authority which is unjustified, bitter and meant whole-heartedly. The type of criticism indulged in by Mr. Haerle. . . .

What right have the Mr. Haerles to criticize about 80 per cent of our people and state that they have no moral values, and that is what Mr. Haerle's letter implies, because about 80 per cent of our people are liberals, be they Democrat or Republican, and then blame some of our youth for their lack of good judgment and moral values?

Civic Center Bonds Brickbat Demanded

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Many of your readers have been waiting expectantly for an editorial reaction to the recent proposal made by our County officials for a bond election to finance the next addition to the Civic Center: this suggestion should certainly merit either a "bouquet" or a "brickbat" from your paper.

It deserves a shower of brickbats. . . . Our present officials are more concerned with immediate political expediency than they are with long-term legislative courage or vision.

The result of such uninspired and insipid leadership would seem, alas, to be inevitable. Many persons who are firm supporters of the Civic Center will oppose this bond issue vigorously. . . .

At the very beginning of a very new year, with a very new Board of Supervisors about to govern our county, one would like to exhort these very human persons: "Have courage! Think large thoughts and brave thoughts. Be leaders of men, not just politicians."

Algerians Might Help Own Poor

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Goerlich's plea in his letter of Dec. 28 for blankets to be distributed by the American Friends Service Committee among the poor in Algeria is a commendable humanitarian endeavor.

What a pity that Algeria's dictator, Ben Bella, doesn't divert Algerian resources presently being used to arm rebels against the legally constituted government in the Congo to caring for his own people so that less suffering would occur!

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

AT SALEM COLLEGE, in Clarksburg, West Virginia, they're telling about a backsliding professor who dropped a bottle of bourbon on the floor. While he was in search of a rag to mop up, three mice stole out of their corner and lapped up all the liquor in sight. In short order they were intoxicated mice, indeed, bristling with new-found assurance and daring. The first one pounded his chest and announced, "I'm off for Red China to put that fellow Mao Tse-tung in his place." The second sneered, "None of that bush-league stuff for me. I'm going straight to the Kremlin and tell 'em what I think of their tactics." The third mouse had different notions entirely. "I'll leave all those world affairs to you, my lads," he proclaimed. "Me, I'm going upstairs and lick the cat."

CRITIC MAURICE DOLBIER picked up a long-out-of-print Universal Biographical Dictionary, published back in 1846, and idly flipping its pages, came upon these entries:

ALEXIS: A Piedmontese who spent his entire life studying, but adhered rigidly to a resolution never to reveal a single one of his discoveries.

AARTGREN: A Dutch painter who worked only on Mondays. The rest of the week he strolled around the streets with his bottle and his flute, and in one of these frolics, was drowned in 1564.

DAVID AB GUILAM: A celebrated Welsh bard who inscribed 147 poems to his sweetheart —whereupon she married another man.

The sub-title of this Universal Biographical Dictionary was "A summary of the lives of the most distinguished individuals among mankind."

Soviets Playing Tricky U.N. Game To Scuttle Peace-Keeping Program

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union is playing a subtle, tricky game at the United Nations.

There are three things the Soviets are after—all bad:

1. They want to avoid paying their full dues, now more than 52 million dollars in arrears.

2. They want to avoid the penalty for being more than two years behind, which is loss of their vote in the General Assembly.

3. But the Soviets are really after something much more important. Their actual goal is to kill the right of the General Assembly to approve U.N. peace-keeping actions at any time under any circumstances. They want to take this right away from the Assembly, over which they have no veto, and put it back entirely in the hands of the Security Council, over which they do have a veto.

This has forced the General Assembly into a craven make-believe. In reality the Assembly, including the Soviet Union, has voted. It installed three new members of the Security Council by labelling the voting "consultation."

Quite a ploy—if it will work. It has been working so far.

THE SOVIET PLOY is this: Keep withholding dues and let the U.N. get nearer and nearer to bankruptcy.

Scream to high heaven that the vote penalty should not apply because to take such a rough action would increase tensions and heat up the cold war. They seek to beguile the smaller nations into believing that the whole thing is a U.S.-Soviet confrontation, not a Soviet-U.N. confrontation.

Then, as the U.N. gets nearer the financial brink, as the Assembly wearies and nerves become taut, the Soviets unsheathe what they really want. They offer to call off the psychological warfare if the Assembly will kindly vote itself out of the peace-keeping business and put all such decisions under Soviet lock and key.

By this tactic they have kept the Assembly immobilized since Dec. 1.

While the Soviets refuse to pay their dues, they keep hinting that some good compromise might be worked out if the Assembly would keep on postponing the vote penalty. This appealed just enough to enough nations so that the U.S. acquiesced in a deal by which everybody promised not to call for a vote on anything and thus the Russians would not lose their vote, since nobody was voting.

THE ASSEMBLY could talk but couldn't act; it couldn't even vote its budget.

A few days ago the president of the Assembly thought he had tied together a face-saving package. The secretary-general would open a "volunteer" fund to which all would be invited to contribute. The members owing back dues would pay into this fund without admitting they were paying their arrears.

And until suitable payments were made, the Assembly would continue not to vote so that the Soviets would not lose their vote.

The U.S. accepted this deal, fuzzy as it was, and the Soviets let it appear that they would accept.

Then the hidden part of the ploy came out. Having persuaded the negotiators that they would use the "volunteer" fund deal to avoid the vote penalty, the Soviets suddenly disclosed that they would insist that the Assembly start voting before they would pay into the fund. They held that no question must be raised about their right to vote even if there was no evidence that the Soviet Union was paying its arrears.

AND THERE IT IS — the Soviet ploy in full cry: no assured payment of dues, a demand that the charter penalty be subverted, and both aimed at coercing the General Assembly to put its hard-won peace-keeping authority into the Soviet straitjacket.

Nice, subtle, tricky game; it's time the Assembly blew the whistle.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Judicial Nomination Stirs Political Ire

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The heat's on to head off an embarrassing Senate furor over a politics-loaded appointment to the largest and most prestigious federal circuit court — the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

MAX KAMPELMAN, 44-year-old lawyer-lobbyist, is definitely slated to be named to this eminent bench.

That's the authoritative word from White House insiders and close Kampelman associates. Also, the FBI is known to be making the check required by law for presidential appointments.

This backstage information is raising Democratic as well as Republican hackles.

Principle reason for this adverse bipartisan reaction is that the only apparent basis for Kampelman's selection is politics — his long and close ties with Vice President-elect Hubert Humphrey.

Kampelman's riled critics indignantly contend they know of no other valid grounds for his elevation to this high federal tribunal. As proof they are citing that the New York-born, Minnesota-educated attorney has never tried a case in court, is wholly without judicial experience.

He and his law partners are registered as lobbyists under the Lobbyist Registration Act. In a record on such registrations published in the Aug. 31, 1964, Congressional Record, Kampelman's firm is listed nine separate times — in each instance as lobbyist for a different Indian tribe. Washington attorneys rate Kampelman's firm as foremost in this type of representation.

The District of Columbia Democratic Central Committee has pointedly ignored Kampelman for a place on this circuit court. Instead, the committee, which carried the capital for President Lyndon B. Johnson by a 6-to-1 landslide, has unanimously recommended three others — Walter Tobriner, chairman of the District of Columbia commissioners; James Francis Reilly, former head of the District of Columbia Public Utilities Commission, and F. Joseph Donahue, one-time chairman of the District of Columbia commissioners. Sen. Alan Bible (D-Nev.), head of the Senate District Committee, strongly favors Reilly.

IN WORLD WAR II Kampelman was a conscientious objector. Yet now he is a major in the Marine Corps Reserve. That's being attributed to a retired Marine brigadier, whose close friendship with Kampelman dates back to when the latter was legislative assistant to Humphrey in his first Senate term.

Kampelman is a member of the board of the Washington bank that gave Bobby Baker the $125,000 unsecured loan. He is a founder of this bank, and was a board member and general counsel at the time the loan was granted. Since the headlined disclosure of this transaction, Kampelman has quietly quit the board, but is still general counsel.

Before and during the Democratic national convention, Kampelman was very active in behalf of Humphrey.

Bad Luck Seems To Dog Schools In Wrestling With Gas Charges

WHEN THE SAN RAFAEL Board of Education reluctantly paid a bill of more than $4,400 to the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. recently, it ended a problem which brought nothing but headaches to all concerned for most of 1964.

And it also brought to light a strange coincidence in the annals of unusual mix-ups at the utility company.

What happened, in short, was that PG&E suddenly discovered it had not been charging the district enough money for gas it had been using at Terra Linda High School, so they sent the board of education a bill.

The error, the firm said, had been going on for more than three years, and the amount due was $5,152.54.

PG&E officials believe this was only the second time this kind of thing, which they insist is rare, had happened in Marin County. Strangely enough, the other situation was also in a school, Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo.

DETAILS OF the earlier mix-up were recalled last month by business director Frank A. Cassou of the Tamalpais High School District.

In early 1961, a meter reader discovered a meter at the Drake High fine arts building which neither he nor anyone else had been reading. Checking further, the company discovered that the meter was turned on by a plumber when the building was finished in September, 1956, and had never been read.

PG&E engineers grabbed their slide rules and computed the bill. They said it came to $2,872.55.

Understandably, district trustees were not happy about being presented with such a large and unexpected gas bill. They asked county counsel Douglas J. Maloney if they had to pay it.

Maloney said that yes, unfortunately, they did. The best he could do was refer them to the Public Utilities Commission, which ruled that a three-year statute of limitations cut the bill to $1,970.24.

Sadly, the trustees paid the latter amount.

IT WAS JUST about the same story all over last March, when PG&E fixed a broken meter at Terra Linda High. In putting it back in service, someone looked over the formulas used for billing and discovered that the company had been using a faulty figure in converting the meter readings into dollars and cents.

This goof had gone on for five and a half years, and PG&E figured it had lost $5,152.14.

Things went through the same chain this time: from unhappy school board to county counsel to PUC. Again, the PUC said the district could lop the figure off at the three-year mark. With a sigh of regret, the board paid $4,470.71.

With the second meter mix-up settled, the utility company's head men are optimistic. It was all just a strange coincidence, they say, and probably won't ever happen again.

BUT YOU CAN'T blame the county's school district business managers if they wince a little each time they open the envelope containing the gas bill in the future.

REMEMBER WHEN?

20 YEARS AGO

Rev. Frederick Avery was unanimously elected to succeed Edith S. Waterman as head of the Marin County Red Cross.

The Marin County Grand Jury urged raises for all county elective officers, including Supervisors R. A. Thompson and William Barr. The proposed scale included raising the county clerk and sheriff from $4,500 to $5,500 per year, as the largest raises.

Marinship announced that it had a new contract which would keep it busy with tanker construction until sometime in 1946.

Sin City's Notoriety Boosts Boarding School Boy's Stock

WASHINGTON—It is probably dangerous to admit, but I have friends who live in Darien, Conn., the upper-class community which has taken such a beating in the news recently over its teen-age drinking scandals.

MOST RESIDENTS have suffered from the publicity, but not everyone. My friends have a young son named Michael, whom they sent off to boarding school. At first he was treated like just another punk kid by his schoolmates and given the typical freshman treatment.

But then when Darien broke into the headlines as a "sin city," things suddenly picked up for the boy. He became a big man overnight. Many older boys who were giving Mike the cold shoulder tried to become his friends, so they would be invited to Darien for the holidays.

Michael was sought after by the best clubs and invited to work on the school newspaper. He wrote his parents:

"I've done my best to uphold Darien's scandalous reputation. I have described the police brutality, the nightly orgies, and the martial law. They believe everything I tell them and insist on hearing more. I would appreciate it if you could send me any information or clippings which could help the legend. If I had two more good scandals, I believe I could make the track team."

MY FRIENDS were very happy their son was getting along so well in school. They sent him clippings and items from the papers, some as far away as Boston, with the datelines cut off, of course.

Michael's father added juicy tidbits in letters, most of which he'd culled from old John O'Hara novels.

All in all, things went smashingly for Michael. He made the track team and when a Darien boy got picked up on a possession - of - marijuana charge, Michael was asked to join the school theatrical group.

But unfortunately the Christmas vacation rolled around and several of Michael's friends asked if they could come home to Darien with him.

Michael's parents were at a loss as to what they could do. They couldn't risk going to jail to keep up Darien's reputation, and at the same time they had the future of their son to consider.

SO THEY TOSSED a half-dozen empty whisky bottles around the living room and hoped that would do the trick. But Christmas turned out to be very uneventful in Darien. No teen-age parties were raided, no parents were booked, no marijuana was found, and all of Michael's friends had a very, very dull time. Most of them were bitter and complained things were much more exciting in their own home towns.

Well, the vacation is over and Michael is scheduled to go back to boarding school today. But he isn't very excited about it. Because of Darien's failure to live up to its image he has lost all the good will he built up in the last few months.

"WHEN YOU GET back to school," one of his house guests, who was a junior, warned him, "we're going to treat you like the punk freshman you are. Darien is for the birds."

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 6, the sixth day of 1965 with 359 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1759, George Washington married Martha Custis.

In 1898, Simon Lake made the first telephone call from a submarine to land.

In 1912, New Mexico was admitted to the union as the 47th state.

In 1959, Rep. Charles Halleck defeated Joe Martin for the post of House Republican Leader.

A thought for the day—Carl Sandburg said: "Time is a sandpile we run our fingers in."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

British Expert Plays Two Suits For Trick At Bridge

Kenneth Konstam hold the record for playing in the European Championships, having played for Great Britain twelve times.

One of the reasons he has been picked so often is made clear in a hand played last year in a match between Britain and France.

The contract and the opening lead were the same at both tables. At the first table, the French declarer decided to try for a ninth trick in hearts.

KING LOSES

When his king of hearts lost to the ace, the defenders got three spades and two hearts, defeating the contract.

Konstam saw no hurry in trying for a heart trick. He won the first trick in dummy with the jack of spades and led a low club from dummy.

There was a chance that West would have to win the trick. If so, South would be able to try for his ninth trick in clubs without having to risk a heart play.

TRY FOR TRICK

At worst, declarer would eventually have to try for a heart trick.

Konstam's first chance failed when East showed up with the queen of clubs. There was still an excellent chance that East would return a spade, his partner's suit.

If so, South would have nine tricks without ever risking a heart play.

SECOND FAILURE

The second chance failed also, for East shifted to the jack of hearts, Konstam was still full of resources. He played a low heart, seeing that he could play the king of hearts on the second round of the suit if necessary.

West had to overtake with the queen of hearts, and now the contract was home. Konstam had nine sure tricks as soon as he could knock out the ace of spades. The defenders could get, at most, two hearts, one spade and one club.

Both declarers would have made three notrump if East had held the ace of hearts. Konstam got a free ride by trying for a club trick first.

LADY FANCYFULL — Kenna Hunt of San Rafael has the role of Lady Fancyfull in the Interplayers production of "The Provoked Wife," now at the 747 Beach Street Theater in San Francisco, Friday and Saturday evenings. The actress is a graduate of the Academy of Dramatic Art in London.

Fire Stations Pickup Points For Flood Aid

All fire stations in Marin County have been designated as pickup points for contributions of supplies for disaster victims in Northern California, William A. Gnoss, county disaster and civil defense director, said today. Saturday is the cutoff date for contributions, he said.

"Clothing, blankets, canned goods and cooking utensils are needed," Gnoss said. The supplies will be picked up by the county fire department and delivered to a Carlson-Greyhound Co. warehouse at 4290 Redwood Highway.

Other pickup points have sprung up spontaneously over the past two weeks since the storm started.

AIMS TOLD

From the warehouse they will be delivered north by the National Defense Transportation Assn., whose coordinator in Marin is Gerald D. Fries. of Carlson-Greyhound, Gnoss said.

The association will aim at reaching flood victims in isolated areas not being reached by other means, said Gnoss.

Other pickup points have sprung up throughout the county in the two weeks since the disaster reports started to come in and the Salvation Army has been collecting these goods and flying them from Laytonville to the flood areas.

PICKUP PLANNED

Mrs. C. L. Pedroni of Fairfax said yesterday that she will supply transportation for contributions which givers cannot take to the Fairfax fire station.

Donald S. Bennett of 3 Harbor Drive, Corte Madera, who announced several days ago that he was collecting supplies for the flood areas said that he has been "swamped" with contributions following a story in the Independent-Journal. Bennett said that "at least a ton" of disaster supplies has left his house in Salvation Army trucks.

'Time Of Cuckoo' Set By Players

The curtain will go up Feb. 11 on "Time of the Cuckoo," second play of the season for the Ross Valley Players, in the Barn theater at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

The cast is now rehearsing, under direction of John Brebner.

Hal Fenton will play the lead role of Renato Di Rossi, while his wife, Lillian, will play Giovanna. Alma Dinsmore will be onstage as a tourist, while her son James plays Mauro.

Other cast members include Rita Knox, Sara Davis, Jean Wagner, Irene Pritzker, Larry Allen and Bill Adams. Backstage workers are Tom Barker, Lucille Shreve, Bill Carter, Alan Atkins and Peggy Greig.

Late-Year Birthdays Feted

By MOLLY MARIN

It was a surprise birthday party that Mrs. Eugene Crawford of the Reedlands, Tiburon, gave in honor of her husband after Christmas, with a group of their close friends attending—Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Petersen of South San Francisco, Joseph Breen of San Anselmo, James Ryan of San Francisco, William Kelley of San Bruno and Howard Swapp of Pacifica were on hand for the cocktail and buffet dinner party.

THE DON R. PRESLEYS of San Rafael gave a birthday celebration on Sunday at their home for their three year old daughter, Carol Alma, whose actual birthdate is Dec. 29. . . .

A HOLIDAY coffee was given recently at her home by Mrs. William Kaffer of Hill Haven, to honor her mother, Mrs. Kathryn Korth who has been visiting from her home in Glendale with the Kaffers.

OTHER VISITORS to Tiburon are Capt. Roy E. Bishop, a Navy chaplain, and his wife of Memphis, who are here to be with their son-in-law and daughter, the Joseph H. Bachellers III of Little Reed Heights and their grandchildren, Kimball and Jack.

FORMER TIBURON people, the Harold F. Greens, who now live on Palos Verdes Peninsula in Southern California, are back in Marin for a week to visit Corena Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Crase of Peacock Gap. The Crases formerly lived in Hawaii. The Greens are accompanied by their children, Elizabeth, Jim and Rick.

MRS. ARTHUR APPEL JR. (Priscilla Tobin) was honored recently at a bridal shower given at the Mill Valley home of Mrs. Alex E. Almcrants. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Joseph Wittenmeier, Lou Long and Vollmar Thoney, all of Mill Valley. Priscilla, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tobin of Mill Valley, and Arthur were married in September in Hartford, Conn., and are now living in Danbury. Vilas-Blodget Nuptials In Fairfax

St. Rita's Church in Fairfax was the setting for the Dec. 26 nuptials of Katherine Jane Blodget and David Wesley Vilas of San Rafael. The Rev. Jeremiah Gleeson officiated at the double ring rite.

Katherine, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Blodget of Fairfax, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length white gown with inset of lace and seed pearls at the neckline and the waistline.

Christine Nyburg, who attends San Jose State College, was her maid of honor, and other attendents were the bride's sisters, Terry, Sandra and Donna Blodget, and the bridegroom's sister, Renee Vilas. All wore full length moss green velveteen gowns.

Patrick Herrero served as ring bearer. Best man was Robert Ingram of Fairfax and the ushers wire Bill Ingram of Fairfax, Victor Lewkowitz of San Francisco, David Lebeck of San Rafael and John Ward of Sleepy Hollow.

A reception was given at the Redwood Club in San Rafael after the wedding. After a Lake Tahoe wedding trip the couple will live in San Rafael.

The bride attended Dominican Convent and College of Marin and is employed with California Packing Corp. Mrs. George B. Lyle of San Francisco is her grandmother.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vilas of Nicasio, and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Vilas of Sonoma are his grandparents.

David was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and served with the Air Force for four years. He is employed with Cuthbert's Blueprint in San Rafael.

Nuptials Planned By Linda Allison

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allison of Fairfax have announced the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ann, to Peter J. Weissenburger of Woodbridge, N. J.

Linda, the sister of Louise Allison of Fairfax, was graduated from Sir. Francis Drake High School and Westmont College in Santa Barbara. She is the granddaughter if Mrs. Berneice Roy of Oakland and Mrs. Anna Olson of Los Angeles.

Peter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weissenburger of Woodbridge, is the brother of Robert, Charles and Tracy Weissenburger, all of Woodbridge. He was graduated from Barrington College in Providence, R. I., and Parks Air College in St. Louis.

Plans include a summer wedding in Brazil, where Peter and Linda will serve as missionaries with the Wycliffe Bible Translators. Peter is currently doing surveying among primitive tribes in the jungles south of the Amazon in western Brazil.

Style Advice

Don't take too much fashion advice, especially from friends, says California designer Don Loper. You lose your point of view and become a conglomeration of opinions, most of which probably are unsuitable to you. Find a style that suits you and then stay with it, Loper urges.

Simple Shoulder

Check the shoulderline if you want to know which way the fashion world is turning. Designers who endorse the architecturally simple look go for a set-in narrow shoulder, cut really high under the arm and going straight down from there. But if softness is the theme, there's more room at the top, with the armhole lowered in favor of a dolman sleeve or a raglan shoulder, the National Cotton Council reports.

Portable Dryer

A small portable electric tumble dryer can be rolled to any convenient spot and plugged into any AC outlet. It handles a load equivalent to four women's dresses or six men's shirts and all the venting needed is an open door or window.

Board Goes Slow On Charter Idea

Marin County supervisors indicated yesterday they are going to move slowly and cautiously before deciding whether to seek a county charter.

The board received a request from the Tiburon Coordinating Council to call an election of a board of freeholders to prepare a charter. But the supervisors agreed to seek opinions of other organizations before considering such a move.

"The matter of a charter should be debated and considered and might well call for a special meeting," said Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker. He said the charter process would be expensive, "probably in excess of $100,000."

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Postponed for two weeks decision on endorsing recommendations of the San Francisco Bay Conservation Study Commission on bay filling. The vote to postpone was 3-2, with Leydecker and Supervisor Thomas T. Storer wanting to take up the question yesterday.
2. Passed a resolution declaring the county's intention to claim $95,347 in federal aid secondary funds and state highway matching funds for the fiscal year 1965-66. Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said the funds may go to improvement of Lucas Valley Road or Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.
3. Set for Jan. 19 at 3 p.m. a joint session with the county parks and recreation commission to discuss the county master plan for parks and recreation.
4. Confirmed appointment of George Webb as a director of the Bolinas Public Utility District to fill the unexpired term of James Bourne.

Marincello Hearing Set For Jan. 19

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday set a hearing on rezoning of the site for the proposed city of Marincello for Jan. 19 at 2 p.m.

Frouge Corp., which is planning the city, is seeking a planned community zoning for the 2,138 acre site, west of Sausalito.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs noted that action on the zoning would not constitute approval or disapproval of plans for the proposed city of 25,000 population.

"If the board approves, is there any indication when the plan will be presented?" chairman Peter H. Behr asked.

Frouge might submit his plans to the county planning commission Jan. 18 or Feb. 1, Dobbs said. The commission would conduct two hearings, after which there would be a hearing before the board of supervisors.

The board granted a two-week continuance to Marie Brindel of Novato, who is appealing planning commission denial of an adjustment to permit a 60-foot lot at 475 Wilson Avenue, West Novato, where 75-feet is the required width.

Robert Wiedenmayer of Novato protested, calling the Brindel area "an uncalled-for disgrace and eyesore."

Candidate Learns To Be Good Loser

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — Hugh Eugene Tudor has learned how to lose elections gracefully. Tudor has struck out 27 times in 28 trips to the political plate. His only victory in 15 years of campaigning was in a race for Fourth Ward Councilman in Augusta.

Tudor's latest defeat was in the Democratic primary this fall when he challenged U.S. Rep. Robert Stephens.

Supervisors Put Freeze On Kentfield Rezonings

Marin County supervisors moved yesterday to freeze action on zoning applications that conflict with the Kentfield Master Plan until the plan is adopted.

They requested County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to draft an interim ordinance designed to preserve the "status quo" in the area.

Action came after Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen reported there are applications for construction in Kentfield that would be contrary to the master plan.

Two applications were before the county planning commission Monday for architectural supervision of apartment buildings on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. The planning staff noted the apartments were planned for an area designated as commercial in the master plan. Commissioners continued the matter until Jan. 18.

When the supervisors asked for an interim ordinance, Mrs. T. C. Wellman of Kentfield commented in the audience, "The Kentfield Master Plan is saved."

Bolinas Potluck Set

This State Full Of Ex-Governors

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky has seven living former governors. By former Gov. Bert Combs' reckoning, that's more than any other state.

"Nowadays," he said, "whenever someone says to me, 'Hello, Governor, how are you?' six people answer, 'Fine, thank you.'"

Israelis Divert River Jordan

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Another stage of Israel's diversion of the Jordan River to irrigate the Negev Desert has been completed.

Water from the Sea of Galilee, through which the river flows, started pouring into an artificial lake at Beit Netufa Tuesday, shortly after a sluice gate was lifted into place.

Much of next summer's irrigation waters will pass through the lake and a pipeline to the Negev, but it will be years before the system can be used to full capacity because of the water's high salt content, a spokesman said.

Bethlehem today is a town of towers and domes, but has few hotels.

Welfare Aide Put On Leave By County

A Marin County social worker, arrested on an Oregon felony complaint Monday, was placed on leave of absence without pay yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The board announced its decision after a brief, closed session with Betty Presley, director of the county social services department.

The social worker, Bruce Joseph Webb, 34, of 24 Hillcrest Road, Mill Valley, was arrested by sheriff's inspectors on a complaint alleging embezzlement of about $300. Webb allegedly embezzled the funds while working in Salem, Ore., as a case worker for Multnomah County, prior to starting work for Marin County last Sept. 14.

Arraigned before Judge Joseph G. Wilson in Marin Municipal Court yesterday, Webb was given a continuance until 1:30 p.m. Tuesday to obtain counsel for a hearing on extradition. He is free on $2,200 bail.

Marinwood Park Maintenance Unit Is Approved

The Marinwood Parks and Recreation Commission approved plans Monday night for a maintenance building to be constructed at the northeast side of Marinwood Park Monday night.

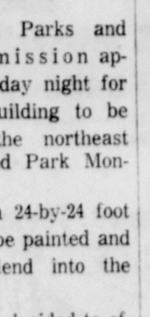

Plans are for a 24-by-24 foot steel building, to be painted and landscaped to blend into the surroundings.

The commission decided to offer another session of the tiny tot program starting early next month, and agreed that paid assistants conduct the program rather than volunteer mothers.

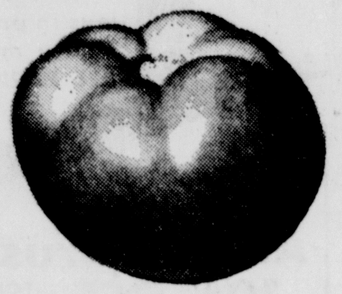

It recommended the Marinwood Community Services District increase pay of Jerry Huff, Art instructor, from $3 to $4 an hour, and Mrs. Jan Swanson, arts and crafts teacher, from $2 to $2.50 an hour. Instruction sessions were increased from six to eight weeks.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Events Of War II Being Played Back

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—This is a commmemorative year for the World War II generation, and television is duly noting it. Twenty years ago this April, President Roosevelt died, and ABC-TV will start a weekly documentary series about him on Friday. Twenty years ago this August, the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, and Tuesday night NBC-TV presented a 90-minute program about that.

Twenty years ago, of course, World War II ended, and last night's documentry traced the activities that led to the decision to drop the bomb, which was followed quickly by the Japanese surrender.

The program was yet another in the growing network trend of presenting safe, historical and frequently hashed-over subjects rather than more immediate and controversial news specials of a less featurish nature. Yet there is also no question that a good historical documentary, such as last night's, despite a large portion of old material mixed in with the apparently new, has a very worthwhile place in broadcasting, particularly a program of such seeming clarity in its reconstruction of events.

Furthermore, one must give credit to NBC-TV where it is due: To the fact that the network was willing to pre-empt 90 minutes of prime time for a documentary that had hardly any commercials which the viewer assumes were sought with normal avidity.

I believe I spotted one commercial for cigarettes and another for the United Nations. It is true that the broadcast consisted in great part of interviews of many persons involved with the pre-blast activities, and that this material was presented crisply, in businesslike manner and without tasteless bravado or undue lecturing. Yet all this added to the gradual fascination.

Most haunting on the program, which was produced and written by Fred Freed, was the slow, deliberative, almost tortured recollecting of physicist Robert Oppenheimer. Of the test blast at Alamagordo, he remembered: "There was unbelievable light and we waited until the blast had passed, walked out of the shelter and then it was extremely solemn. We knew the world would not be the same. Few people laughed, few people cried. Most people were silent. I remembered the line from the Hindu scripture, the Baghavad Gita: . . . 'Now I am became death, destroyer of worlds.' I suppose we all thought that, one way or another."

City Fete Will Honor Sgt. Fellows

Veteran San Rafael Police Sgt. Arthur W. Fellows will be honored at a retirement dinner, sponsored by the San Rafael City Employees Assn., on Jan. 16.

The dinner and installation of new officers of the employees association will be at the Redwood Club, Fourth and C streets.

Co-chairmen Francis Rodgers and Raymond Bleasdale announced that a no-host cocktail hour will start at 7 p.m., followed by dinner at 8.

Sergeant Fellows retired Dec. 31 after more than 20 years on the San Rafael police force.

Police Officer Gerald Souza will take over the gavel as new president of the San Rafael employees group, succeeding Capt. George Hasler of the fire department.

Co-chairman Rodgers said dinner reservations should be made at the San Rafael City Hall, police station, or any fire station.

Windsor Leaves Texas Hospital

HOUSTON (UPI)— A somewhat "Texan-ized" Duke and Duchess of Windsor, his recovery from an artery operation complete, fly back to New York City today, giving one airline's "Royal Flight" a chance to earn its title.

Reservations for the royal party aboard a champagne flight were made under false names. But no other special preparations were made for the former British King and the duchess for whom he gave up the throne in 1936. The airline said they would sit with the other first class passengers.

The airline said the duke and duchess would lunch on southern-fried quail with their champagne. That ought to go well with the duke, who apparently picked up something of a taste for Texas during his 23-day stay.

Pilgrims Trek To Bethlehem

JERUSALEM (UPI) — About 2,500 Greek and Russian Orthodox pilgrims crossed into Jordan today to attend Eastern Christmas ceremonies in Bethlehem.

The Jordanian government denied admission to 63 persons who wished to take part in the rites. No explanation was offered.

The crossing began at dawn. The pilgrims must return here by midnight Thursday.

AN UNCOMMON 'COMMON MAN'

Louis Bennett takes the many-sided role of the cynical and impregnable Common Man of Robert Bolt's drama "A Man for All Seasons," opening Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in the Marin Festival Theater at Bolinas Avenue and Kensington Road, San Anselmo. The Common Man, who actually takes six different parts during the play, is an interpreter who wanders in and out of the story of the struggles of Sir Thomas More in the intrigue-ridden court of King Henry VIII of England. The play will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through Feb. 28.

More than 400 pounds of blankets and warm clothing, donated to ease the plight of storm-stricken Indian families in the Klamath area, has been collected by members of El Marinero chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The DAR collection, plus other donations from Marin County, will be airlifted to northern California by reservists flying from Hamilton Air Force Base, then delivered by boat, helicopter and other means. More donations will be accepted, no later than tomorrow, at any Marin County firehouse, or at the Carlson-Greyhound depot, 4390 Redwood Highway, San Rafael.

The county's Civil Defense office and the National Defense Transportation Assn. are cooperating in the delivery project, and the Republican Women of Marin are seeking further relief donations from wholesalers in San Francisco and elsewhere.

The supervisors will be questioned by listeners and moderator Kitty Oppenheimer. The program will be rebroadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m. from a recording.

Park Timetable Due Commission

Timetable revision for San Rafael parksite purchases is expected to be the top agenda item for today's 8 p.m. meeting of the San Rafael Recreation and Park Commission in the city hall.

Joseph D. Rodota, city recreation director, explained that the city budget contains a backlog of cash for development of the future Freitas Park in Terra Linda, but that improvements of the donated property cannot be started for some time to come.

As much as $50,000 is available from this fund for transfer to land acquisition uses, thus foreshortening property purchases originally planned over a two to three-year period, Rodota said.

"The schedule is prohibitive as far as groundbreaking is concerned" at Freitas Park, he explained; "We have not even started on firm plans" for the project.

The park and recreation commission also will discuss again proposals that the Caesar Bettini memorial fund be used to erect a square dance pavilion at Gerstle Park, which has met with some opposition from neighbors.

Rodota and the commissioners will discuss plans to meet with Raymond Nesbit, executive officer of the state wildlife conservation board, to discuss possible cooperation in installing a small boat launching ramp on the canal.
